CT Wildlife Magazine Webinar Series: Summer Birds, Our Neotropical Residents

Thursday, June 17 at 6pm via Zoom

This summer enjoy monthly webinars on Connecticut's wildlife and the challenges facing them. The topics extend on articles featured in this summer's issues of Connecticut Wildlife, a bimonthly publication available through the Wildlife Division of CT Department of Energy and Environmental Protection. Meet state biologists and outreach specialists involved in the research of our local wildlife as they talk about current wildlife conservation issues. Webinars are presented at 6:00 pm. All are welcome. Register here to receive the link.

You Are Not Alone

Tuesday, June 29 at 6:30pm via Zoom

Based upon the book You Are Not Alone: Our Loved Ones Are Here... You're Just Not Listening by Sydney Sherman. This presentation covers how Sydney came to the understanding at an early age of what really happens when we die, the process which allows us to remain, and how our loved ones interact with us and us with them. We can learn to connect with them and know the true signs of their presence.

FOR FAMILIES

Cooking with Chef Rob – Summer is Bursting with Flavor

Wednesday, June 16 at 7pm via Facebook Live
