

PEQUANNOCK TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL
WORK-BASED LEARNING

Pequannock Township High School offers seniors a Work-Based Learning program. The New Jersey Department of Education supports the development of experiential learning programs that offer students career exploration and preparation. The goal of the WBL program is to offer students the opportunity to enhance both academic and career skills that will assist in preparing them for their post-secondary goals. Students enrolled in the WBL program will attend school for a portion of the day and then report to their internship/job. The WBL Coordinators will oversee the program, and maintain communication with the students and business partners.
