OPEN TO PUBLIC - AGENDA ITEMS ONLY

Members of the public may speak once for a maximum period of five minutes by the clock during this portion of the meeting. The public may speak on any agenda item during their five minutes. If a member of the public raises a question, all questions should be directed to the Board President. Depending on the nature and the complexity of the question, it may or may not be answered during the meeting and, if so, only after the member of the public has completed their comments or reached their allotted time.

Elaine Baccarella, 16 William Street

Pequannock Green Team representative remarked that the agenda does not reflect the correct number of anti-idling signs being donated. The Green Team is proposing 18 signs. She went on to explain that the anti-idling law is for the health of the children, so that drivers are reminded to turn cars off while waiting to avoid inhalation of invisible fumes. If the signs should be destroyed by weather, the Green Team will replace them.
