II.Special Presentation:

Karen Howey

-She said congratulations to all the nominees and thank you to all those who did a nomination. Many districts have come together with Wayne RESA and have jointly submitted a waiver for the number of days and clock hours for the following 3 programs:

A) Severe Cognitive Impairment Programs (SCI) B) Severe Multiple Impaired Programs (SXI) C) Early Childhood/Preschool Programs. If you would like to know which districts were included or have any questions about the process, please contact Karen Howey for the list. She did share at the meeting; they vary by program.

-This summer Wayne RESA will be transitioning from the ISD plan into the Catamaran electronic system FINALLY!!! Taking what use to be hard copy of ISD plan and putting it into an electronic system. The PAC has a role in this development of the plan and she will talk with Kara and get that subcommittee to go over the transitioning.
