

My Favorite Toy

7th Meets

Hands down my favorite toy would have to be my I I Pod Touch. I am addicted to that thing. I guess I could say I'm on it 24/7.

It all started last Christmas. I really wasn't excited about opening the presents because I get lame ones every year. So I grabbed one of the small ones, opened it up and it was an I Pod Touch. As I opened it up the bright silver back of the I Pod glistened in the bright lighting in the room. It was an I Pod! I was very happy with this year's gifts.

The next morning I grabbed the I Pod and just started downloading tons of apps, games, music and lots of other stuff. For a very long time I wouldn't get off the I Pod. I was very addicted and my mom was starting to regret buying me this.

What I really love about the I Pod are the games. Temple Run, Angry Birds, Fruit Ninja are my top three favorite games.

Sometimes I will be on Facebook but mostly I'm texting. It's all just very addicting.

I also really like snapping pictures and videos. Whenever I think I'm somewhere cool, I'll snap a picture or make a video.

Listening to music would be another thing I really enjoy. When I'm on a bus, in a car, wherever I'll be listening to music.

I was very excited the day I got my I Pod. I wouldn't trade for anything else in the world. I absolutley love it.
