

is sitting next to me. Her old owners neglected her and I don't want to be like them.

I love my dog. No one can ever take her away from me. I will always find her and she will always find me. She is my favorite pet. She is like no other dog. She is a special dog. Thank you for listening to my paper.

I own something of great value. Do you? If not I will tell you about mine. That is my dog Dixie. I play with her all the time. I love her.

She is a very skinny dog. We try to feed her a giant cup, but she won't get any bigger. If you look at her you can see her ribs.

We got her from the Animal Shelter in Medford. I remember when we got her. I had no idea what was going on. Then we stepped inside and then it came to me we were getting a dog!

Dixie and I are best friends. We do everything together. When we got her, we played tug of war. Of course she won. We also play fetch in my yard. Dixie is a really fast runner so she always gets the frisbie.

Still I need to get better on how I treat her. I don't really treat her like I should. I do love her, but I don't always play with her. Sometimes I even forget that she
