

The happiest moment in my life was when me, my brother and my sister went to the water park. It was so fun. We went on a three seater on the cyclone. It looks like a toilet flushing. The Cyclone is colossal.

We went on it like four times in a row. Then we went on a huge water slide. We got lunch there. I got a Dr. Pepper and a cheeseburger. It was good. After we went in the deep & shallow pool. I went with my brother and my sister. The Roaring Rapids water slide. We got a hummingbird raft. My mom and my dad were watching from way down. It was awesome.

I almost fell out of the raft. The water squirted in my face. It hurt but I was okay. It was 2:30 p.m. and we all went to the avalanche. It was very very fun. We all went in the deep side of the pool. I stubbed my toe. It hurt. That wasn't good. Then we went home. I was tired.
