

STONYHURST

CHEF VACANCY

Whether it is for comfort eating, health living or well-balanced variety, the Chefs at Stonyhurst are at the heart of the home we offer to our pupils, providing high quality fresh food throughout the day, exploring new cuisines and dishes from any of the 32 countries represented in our Pupil body. The Catering team not only provide high quality food daily to over 450 pupils, there are also opportunities to showcase your own innovative skills and experience through key celebrations and events.

Situated next to the picturesque village of Hurst Green, Stonyhurst offers a unique working environment with excellent benefits such as free access to the Swimming pool and gym facilities, uniform and safety shoes provided, discounted access to the Golf club, fee remission, cycle to work scheme and an Employee Benefits package which includes retail discounts and well-being services.

We are looking for professional chefs to join the team from Mid-August and have a range of hours and shifts available for both full and part-time roles, working straight shifts and only 1 weekend day each week. Term time working may also be considered. Currently the rate of pay will range from £22,500 - £25,500 per annum, this is negotiable based upon level of experience. This is based on a 39 hour working week.

Level 3 Food Safety Qualification is desirable, Level 2 Food Safety is Essential
