

Students of the Month - January 2020 - Open-Minded

Grade	Student	Reason
6th Orange	Sophie Tran 	Sophie is openminded and accepting of others. She is always very supportive of her peers and encourages them all to embrace their own individuality.
6th White	Loralie Chase 	Loralie demonstrates the trait of open-mindedness through her thorough questioning of situations. She seeks to understand both sides of an issue, even when she doesn't agree with one position. Loralie is able to see the complexity in situations and is not held back by preconceived notions.
6th Yellow	Genevieve Bell 	Genevieve is an open-minded student who works well with peers from all backgrounds. She deeply ponders other perspectives than her own and is considerate of people who think and feel differently than her. Genevieve is ready at all times to absorb new ideas and cultural perspectives and to grow in her own ideas as she learns about the world.
6th Blue	Lowan Sheean 	Lowan is a kind, respectful, and caring student. She isn't afraid to participate in class discussions and listen to others. What we love about Lowan is that she is always willing to help others and does so with a smile on her face.

6th Black	Sofia Green 	Sofia has an open-minded approach to learning and growing as a student. She shows that she values and appreciates her classmates with her kind and cheerful acceptance of others. She works willingly and effectively with her classmates on group work. She is positive and open to new work and projects. Sofia is a delightful student to have in class.
7th White	Logan Day 	Logan Day brings an open mind to each lesson, asking questions and writing reflections that show how willing he is to learn. His interactions are never defensive! He's open to the learning that his teachers provide, and he shows that he takes their feedback to heart when he revises his work.
7th Orange	Kyle Barias 	Kyle Barias is willing to work with anyone in the classroom. He listens to others and reevaluates his ideas based on what others have shared. During group discussions he listens to others and freely shares his ideas. He offers his ideas in a non-threatening way and his thinking is always evolving. He is kind, respectful, seeks understanding and is willing to try new ways.
8th Orange	Jolan Shaw 	Jolan is open-minded. She listens intently to others' opinions with respect. She is willing to ask questions when another's view may differ from hers, but she appreciates what others have to say. Jolan clearly understands that every person comes from a unique set of experiences and seems to like hearing about what others have learned. She is always looking for ways to grow from every experience.

8th White

Katelyn
Cauthorn
(Kiwanis)

Katelyn Cauthorn is an openminded student. Katelyn uses critical and creative thinking skills to analyze and take responsible action on complex math problems. Katelyn took initiative to share #BeKind in Grade 8 math classes. Katelyn makes reasoned, open minded ethical decisions. Katelyn is responsible, kind, excellent mathematician, and is a Cedar Leader that welcomes all students and listens to ideas from all.