REMEMBER: Students can take NO MORE than 30 Concurrent Enrollment credits per ACADEMIC YEAR, and no more than 20 WSU credits per semester. Grades earned in CE courses will become part of your permanent college record and cannot be repeated through the Concurrent Enrollment Program.

NOTE: WSU Residency requires AT LEAST 10 credits be taken through Weber State University (this includes Concurrent Enrollment) for the General Studies Certificate of Completion to be awarded. Student may not earn Certificate of Completion through transfer coursework, Advanced Placement, or International Baccalaureate alone.

This guide is meant for planning ONLY. It does not replace advising and seeing your WSU CE advisor is needed to participate in the General Studies Certificate of Completion Program.
