

Ed.D. in Ethical Leadership

A strategic and applied degree for leaders of any organization

You desire to implement strategies for innovation.

You lead organizations through best practices.

You want to unlock your potential to transform the world through ethical leadership.

Are you passionate about transforming your organization to be more effective? Do you seek to be recognized as a leader in your professional community? The Ed.D. in Ethical Leadership provides a model for how professionals lead change, transform society, and apply strategic decisions. You will explore leadership paradigms and develop a framework for how ethics, values and cultural influences transform society. This degree enables you to apply expertise to the study of ethics, leadership, and change management to strategically interact with other thought leaders to make an impact in your professional setting. This program serves professionals in a variety of fields including but not limited to, For-profit and Nonprofit settings, Public Service, Education, Business, Ministry, Healthcare, and Military.

Program Features

- Online curriculum designed to create community through discussion and interactive assignments.
- Networking with other community leaders.
- Case studies on managing change and providing ethical leadership principles within organizations.
- The opportunity to solve any specific problems facing your organization.
- Individualized support services and tutoring for the online student.

Dissertation in Practice

The Dissertation in Practice will demonstrate the learner's ability to identify a significant issue within their organization or community and their ability to conduct research leading to a practical and implementable solution from which others will benefit. The Dissertation in Practice is designed to help you focus on a problem or area of interest and to thoroughly research the problem and suggest a solution which makes a positive impact.

- Your achievement in the program and the dissertation process is supported by a robust student success model.
- The curriculum is designed to support and shape the challenge you are addressing in your dissertation.
- Your dissertation coach and committee are selected to provide direction, subject matter expertise and support throughout the Ed.D. program.
