

STONYHURST

Catering Assistants

Do you want to be part of a close knit, passionate team, can you deliver fantastic customer service? The catering team within Stonyhurst College is the place for you. Set in the Ribble Valley, Stonyhurst has a unique and beautiful setting, fascinating heritage, fine reputation and excellent facilities.

We currently have several roles available, with varied hours, to work as part of our outstanding Catering Team delivering a high-quality daily food service to our students.

These roles are term time only with the possibility of additional hours during school holidays.

Hours of work:

We have a number of different ways to work flexibly, so at your interview feel free to talk about what flexibility means to you, it may open the door to not only a new role but a new way of working.

Full and part time working patterns are available which include weekend working and a mix of early shifts starting at 7am and late shifts finishing at 8.30pm.

Salary:

The rate of pay for the role is currently £8.91 per hour for applicants aged 21 and over which will increase to £9.50 per hour in September 2021.

As a Stonyhurst employee you will enjoy our unique benefits package, including complimentary meals whilst on shift, free access to the Swimming pool and free membership to the health and fitness facilities (gym). We also run a salary sacrifice cycle to work scheme.

Applicants will require their own transport, although transport may be available from Clitheroe.

Successful applicants will be subject to an enhanced DBS check.
