SUMMER COLLEGE VISITS

Summer will soon be here, and these two months off of school can be a valuable period for college prep and planning! The summers after sophomore and junior years are a great time to get a head start on SAT and ACT prep, to begin researching potential college choices and career paths, and to start planning a visit to college campuses.

Why is summer a good time to explore a college campus?

- More Time to Visit Schools: Many high school students have more down time since school is not in session. Without the commitments of the school week, students can visit colleges for a longer time and even see multiple campuses in one trip.
- Ability to Spend More Time on Campus: Colleges often offer week-long summer programs on campus. There may be an opportunity to live in the dorms, eat in the dining hall, and use resources like the library and student center to get a taste of campus life.
- Staff and Faculty May Have More Time to Visit: Professors and admissions staff are often not as busy in the summer. Their lighter loads can allow them to be more accommodating and available to answer questions.

There are many excellent colleges close to Avon that are offering in-person visits this summer. Click below to get more information:
