

About Harry Snyder, President/CEO

Harry Snyder was most recently the Director of Adult Workforce Development for Great Oaks, overseeing all adult education programs for the district. An 18-year veteran of Great Oaks when he was selected as President/CEO, Snyder came to the career-technical school district in 1996 to work on economic development. Since then, he was involved in job creation initiatives in Highland, Clinton, and Fayette counties; assisted in the development of the Greater Cincinnati Workforce Network (Partners for a Competitive Workforce); and helped secure a $4.9 million grant for the Health Careers Collaborative, located at the OhioMeansJobs center on Central Parkway in Cincinnati.

As President/CEO of Great Oaks, Harry Snyder oversees one of the largest public career-technical school districts in the United States, serving 36 school districts in southwest Ohio. Great Oaks offers career-technical programs and services to over 14,000 high school students and 40,000 adults annually.

Nationally, Snyder has served as the Vice-President of Postsecondary, Adult & Career Education Division of the Association for Career and Technical Education.

He is actively involved in community organizations which include: Batavia Rotary Club, Mt. Carmel Christian Church, Board President of the Clermont County Board of Developmental Disabilities, Ohio Association of Career and Technical Education (President, 2007), Adult Workforce Development Administration Division (President, 2006), Clermont County Chamber of Commerce, Greater Cincinnati Regional Chamber and the Sharonville Business Advisory Committee.

Snyder holds a Master's Degree in Vocational Education from Wright State University and a Bachelor of Business Administration in Management from University of Cincinnati.
