A praying Community

Please keep all of these intentions in your daily prayers:

For our Pastor's Intentions:

- * For the sick and suffering of the parish; for those mourning the death of a loved one.
- * For peace in the world, especially in the Middle East.
- * For a renewed sense of evangelization among our parishioners so that our mission, to Bring Christ to all, may be fulfilled.

For our Parish Intentions:

- * For the young adults to recognize the importance of receiving the sacrament of matrimony and having Christ as the center of their union.
- * For all the priest transitions happening this month and for the incoming Pastor for Blessed Trinity, Fr. Matias Hualpa

For the Pope's Intentions: We pray that, in social, economic and political situations of conflict, we may be courageous and passionate architects of dialogue and friendship. .

For the sick and elderly of the parish, Zach K., Hermes H., Xonia G., David T., Angel C., Juan A., Miguel N., America V., Robert (Ski) W., Rose B., George & Isabel R., Roger P., Geoffrey P., Larry B., Jose Alberto V., Osvaldo C., Ozzie C., Peter C., Manolo R., Lizzi R., Alyssa Milagros, Carlos V., Frank P., Juan S., Suzie D., Joseph M., Ernesto D., Edith H., Gabriel P., Armando L., Julie L., Andres G., John A., Edward R., Teresita Q., Juan Jose R., Adam N., Sara C., Sue G., John Paul L. & Connon L

For the eternal repose of the recently deceased.

It is important during this difficult time of "Social Distancing", that we stay in contact, we still need each other and need to keep our momentum and hope on our mission of Bringing Christ to All.

Es importante durante este momento difícil de "distanciamiento social", que nos mantengamos en contacto, todavía nos necesitamos los unos a los otros y debemos mantener nuestro impulso y esperanza en nuestra misión de llevar a Cristo a todos.

Would you invite Jesus into your summer?

Greetings in the Lord!

Here in Florida we start the summer earlier than some other States but even then, July is the month when we all seem to relax, slow down, and enjoy more leisure time.

I always found it interesting that sometimes when we have more free or unstructured time on our hands, it seems more difficult to do the things we do when we have a full day of activities. That is particularly true when it comes to prayer.

We may have lots of plans for the summer, which usually not only include vacations and leisure activities, but also organizing and renovating our homes. I wonder how often we include Jesus in our daily plans? Do we make time to pray as a family?

There are simple ways in which we can invite Jesus into our summer; asking our children, spouses and parents to write an intention for what they'd like to pray for that week. Thereafter, reading the intentions every day at the table, and sharing a short prayer like the Our Father or Hail Mary for the intentions as a family. You may participate in an activity to help those in need; or visit the elderly that you may know in your neighborhood. A homemade card for those visits is a heartfelt treat. These are only a few ideas but, your creativity will surely shine as you think of creative ways to invite Jesus into your daily summer plans. I would love to hear about them!

In our faith, the Mass is the highest form of prayer since it contains not only different forms of prayers within it, penitential, petition, intercessory, and thanksgiving. But, most of all because of the consecration, participation, and reception of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. Do we intentionally find time during the weekend to participate in the Mass? Remember to go to mass in any city you visit, Jesus is always there.

St. Paul says, "God loves a cheerful giver. Moreover, God is able to make every grace abundant for you, so that in all things, always having all you need, you may have an abundance for every good work" (2 Co 9:7-8). If you go on vacation during this summer, you may ask Jesus to travel along by praying to Him and consider offering a donation to Blessed Trinity for the equivalent of a meal when you dine out. This way you would be inviting Jesus out for dinner as well.

If you stay at home, we may enjoy cookouts, children's pool parties, and all sorts of fun events. You may include Jesus through prayer and invite him to share a meal at your table. Through prayer consider making a donation or a percentage of what you would spend weekly on these events to the church.

Remember, Blessed Trinity will be open all summer. Come and visit Jesus Christ and this faith-filled Community.

I pray you have a safe and blessed summer. I look forward to seeing each of you!

Father Matias

¿Invitarías a Jesús a tu verano?

¡Saludos en el Señor!

Aquí en la Florida comenzamos el verano antes que en otros estados, pero de todas formas, Julio es el mes en el que buscamos descansar, bajar de revoluciones y disfrutar de más tiempo libre.

Es interesante que, a veces, cuando tenemos más tiempo libre o no estructurado en nuestras manos, parece más difícil hacer las cosas que hacemos cuando tenemos un día completo de actividades. Eso es particularmente cierto cuando se trata de la oración.

Es posible que tengamos muchos planes para el verano, que generalmente no solo incluyen vacaciones y actividades de re-creación, sino también la organización y renovación de nuestras casas. Me pregunto, ¿con qué frecuencia incluimos a Jesús en nuestros planes diarios. ¿Hacemos tiempo para orar en familia?

Hay maneras simples en las que podemos invitar a Jesús a nuestro verano; pidiendo a nuestros hijos, cónyuges y padres que escriban una intención sobre lo que les gustaría orar esa semana. Luego, leer las intenciones todos los días en la mesa, compartiendo una breve oración como el Padre Nuestro o el Ave María por las intenciones como familia. También pueden participar en una actividad para ayudar a los necesitados; o visitar a los ancianos que ustedes conocen en su vecindario. Una tarjeta hecha en casa para esas visitas es un regalo invaluable. Estas son solo algunas ideas, pero su creatividad seguramente brillará al pensar en diferentes formas de invitar a Jesús a sus planes diarios de verano. ¡Me encantaría saber sus ideas!

En nuestra fe, la Misa es la forma más elevada de oración ya que contiene no solo diferentes formas de oración dentro de ella: oración penitencial, peticiones, intercesión y acción de gracias entre otras. Pero, sobre todo contiene la consagración, participación y recepción del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo. ¿Hacemos tiempo intencionalmente durante el fin de semana para participar en la misa? Recuerda ir a misa en cualquier ciudad que visites, Jesús siempre está ahí.

San Pablo dice: “Dios ama al que da con alegría. Y poderoso es Dios para colmarlos de toda gracia a fin de que teniendo, siempre y en todo, lo necesario, tengan aún sobrante para toda obra buena” (2 Co 9: 7-8). Si van de vacaciones durante este verano, pueden pedirle a Jesús que les acompañe orando y considerando ofrecer una donación a Blessed Trinity por el equivalente a una comida cuando salga a cenar. De esta manera, también invitaría a Jesús a cenar.

Si se queda en casa, es posible que disfrute de comidas al aire libre, fiestas infantiles en la piscina y todo tipo de eventos divertidos. Rezando puede invitar a Jesús a compartir una comida en su mesa. A través de la oración, también considere hacer una donación o dar un porcentaje de lo que gastaría semanalmente en estos eventos para la iglesia.

Recuerde, Blessed Trinity estará abierta todo el verano. Venga a visita a Jesucristo y a esta comunidad llena de fe.

Ruego que tengan un verano seguro y bendecido. ¡Espero verlos a cada uno de ustedes!

Padre Matias.

Going to Mass: the central act of our faith Archbishop Wenski's column for the June edition of the Florida Catholic

Going to Mass “religiously” – on all Sundays and holy days – is what we Catholics do. It is the most obvious “marker” of a Catholic identity. The central act of our faith and the highest manifestation therefore of Catholic spirituality is participation in the Holy Eucharist seen as the source and summit of the Christian life. The recovery of Eucharistic practice – with renewed coherence and wonder– must be the path forward as we emerge from this pandemic, for the Eucharist – the Body and Blood of Christ – is the source of our healing and hope.

La Misa: El centro de nuestra fe Columna del Arzobispo Wenski para la edición de junio 2021 de La Voz Católica Ir a Misa “religiosamente” —todos los domingos y días santos— es lo que hacemos los católicos. Es el “marcador” más obvio de una identidad católica. El acto central de nuestra fe y, por tanto, la máxima manifestación de la espiritualidad católica es la participación en la Sagrada Eucaristía vista como fuente y cumbre de la vida cristiana. La recuperación de la práctica eucarística, con coherencia y asombro renovados, debe ser el camino a seguir al salir de esta pandemia, porque la Eucaristía, el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, es la fuente de nuestra curación y esperanza.
