Parish Events & Updates

The offices are closed on Monday, July 5th for the July 4th Holiday.
Mass is at 9am and then the Church will be closed.

The final stage of the new sound system is complete. The training of staff and volunteers now begins. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we work to learn the new system.

We are excited about the idea of holding the parish annual Fall Fest on the weekend of September 18/19, 2021, but we realize it will have to be different than in years past.

With the lack of vaccines available for children, we will not be having bouncy houses or games where kids can be put at risk. Knowing that this year the event will be different we would like to gather ideas from the parish. Please complete the survey which will help us in the planning process.

The survey will be open until July 11th <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/ZSN9L3L>.

Thank you, Fall Fest Committee

The OLGC Adult Co-ed Softball League is back for another fun season!! We are looking forward to our fifth season after some fantastic games with a great group of men and women (must be over 18). We hope to maintain four teams this season, so WE NEED YOU! We will hold informal practices on Friday evenings starting in July. The games will be played on Sunday afternoons beginning in July and wrapping up in August/September with a league-wide tournament culminating in a celebratory league-wide end-of-season party. All skill levels are welcome. New players will be added to existing teams by the league with player input with the goal of equalizing teams. There is a player fee of $40. If you order a jersey, there will be an additional fee of $15. Please complete the form on website to register. If you have any questions, please contact Jackie Kenney Madden at jfkmadden@gmail.com.

CCF Registration for Next School Year is Open for Preschool - 8th Grade!

www.olgcva.org/faith-formation/children-youth/ccf-reg We pray that this finds you well! We will register as usual for CCF, hoping for the best for the Fall but with the understanding that we will most likely need to make adjustments to class sizes/times, session dates, e-learning opportunities, COVID-19 safety protocols, etc., along the way per OLGC Parish, Diocesan, State, and CDC guidelines. We will keep you informed as we go along and hope to know more in July or early August 2021. Classes will also be dependent on having enough catechists and volunteers.

We do need catechists for each class in order to hold that class whether it's in person or online. If you'd like to volunteer to teach, be an aide, hall/room monitor, or nurse/medical technician, please contact Amy MacKinnon, amackinnon@olgcva.org, if you'd like to help our kids in CCF to go boldly into the future!

Parish Updates & Events

EM Training - Feed the Flock. Experience the reward and fulfillment of growing your faith by joining the team of Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. A training session will be held on Wednesday, July 14th @ 7p in the Chapel. What a wonderful way to both attend Mass and at the same time give back in service to the Lord by distributing Communion to members of the OLCG Community. If you are interested in attending the training session, please contact Cheryl Jones at cjones@olgcva.org or 703.896.7418 by Monday, July 12th.

Thank you from Britepaths Britepaths cannot thank you enough for all you have done for the disadvantaged in our community. We see your heart through your generous donations to support Britepaths supplemental food program. As far back as our electronic records go, you have given over $60,000 (cash and in-kind)! Helping put food on the table for over 6,000 families. Most recently, collecting $6,500 in donations. Amazing. I envision the relief on many parents' faces. Britepaths has been honored to partner with OLCG whom we find a reliable supporter. We cannot help those in need without congregations like yours. We appreciate that you choose to partner with Britepaths and hope you will continue in the future. P.S. Special thanks to the Food Program Coordinators. They are rock stars! Lisa Whetzel, Executive Director, Britepaths. Ms. S, wrote: "Thank you so much for providing help. I am a single mom and do what I can to make it so that my daughter will have a better life. It's awesome to know that there are good people in the world that are helpers."

Monthly Outreach Project: Diaper Drive

Sat. July 10th 3:30-5:30pm and Sun. July 11th 7:30am-1:30pm and 4:30—6:30pm

Volunteers will be at the bell tower circle in front of DeSales Hall to take your donations on Saturday, July 10th between 3:30 - 5:30 pm and on Sunday, July 11th from 7:30 am - 1:30 pm and 4:30- 6:30pm. HAPPY INDEPENDENCE DAY! – Despite what the calendar says, it seems summer really begins on the 4th of July. That's when we experience fireworks in the street or on the Mall in Washington DC. That's when we gather with family and friends, and when we stage cookouts and barbecues in the backyard, and probably drink a lot of cold beverages. Amidst all the red, white, and blue celebration, let's not forget what this day commemorates. Wishing you a happy Fourth!

REFLECTING ON LOSS – Recently, within a short span of only a few weeks, I lost four long-time friends – the kind you have for 40 or 50 years. Irreplaceable. They all lived to a good age, so I can't say they were called home too soon. Nobody likes to think about death. Yes, we know it's inevitable, but our minds push it away and we hear that little inside voice saying "Yeah, some day, but not yet!" That is, until we experience the loss of someone very special, forcing us to face our own mortality. But when a tsunami of loss occurs in such a short time, and the circle of friends we've had from the past suddenly shrinks dramatically, it seems much worse. As I've written before, and as many of you know, my mom lived to be 102. When the very last, long-time friend from her circle of comfort and support for so many years died, she began to refer to herself as "The Last of the Mohicans." It always made us laugh. It's appropriate that she chose that title, because she always was a warrior – determined, going hard at whatever life brought, and more than able to tackle whatever came into her days. Another way she'd refer to herself was as "a tough old bird." Yes, she was that too. I'm beginning to understand where she was coming from.

While grieving the loss of Don, Doris, Betty and Jo, I see the number of friends from the back side of my life getting smaller each year but at the same time, on the front side I can see the many new friends I've made in the three years since I moved into my retirement community. No, they'll never be like the forty- and fifty-year-old relationships that I've lost, but they fill my days with laughter, compassion and warmth. Best of all, however, are the memories that sustain me and, together, the old and the new become enough.

ELDER WISDOM – Celebrate endings for they precede new beginnings.
