DRAMA

THE OLD HARROVIAN PLAYERS: THE TEMPEST

Sunday 12 September
3pm – Ryan Theatre

Twelve years have passed since the usurped Duke of Milan, Prospero, was set adrift to die at sea with his three-year-old daughter and his books. Now Fortune's wheel has turned, and Prospero's enemies have come within the compass of his influence, wrecked on the island by his conjured tempest. The day has come when the banished Duke, now a mighty sorcerer, can exact his revenge...

Directed by Tobias Deacon (*Newlands 2000*³), this 70th anniversary production of Shakespeare's The Tempest by the Old Harrovian Players will also be staged at the Sam Wanamaker Playhouse on London's South Bank — a candlelit, indoor space at the world-famous Shakespeare's Globe — over the weekend of 18 and 19 September. For further information on obtaining tickets for these performances, please contact theatre@harrowschool.org.uk.

THE SHELL DRAMA FESTIVAL: AESOP'S ALLSTARS

Sunday 17 October
4pm and 7.30pm – Ryan Theatre

Vibrant, eccentric and comic, Aesop's Fables introduce us to dynamic characters and moral debates. New boys from each House present their own versions of the timeless tales, directed by Sixth Formers.

RENDALLS AND WEST ACRE HOUSE PLAY: UNMAN, WITTERING AND ZIGO

Thursday 11 and Friday 12 November
7.30pm – Ryan Theatre

A teacher arrives hoping to make a good impression in his first job at a prestigious school. The discovery of his predecessor's murder forces him to question some dark truths. Whom should he confront? The boys he teaches, the masters in charge, or their blind obedience to the authority of the school? Rendalls and West Acre combine to present Giles Cooper's intriguing yet comic thriller, directed by Gaynor Jervis.

NEWLANDS HOUSE PLAY: THE BLOODY CHAMBER

Thursday 25 and Friday 26 November
7.30pm – Ryan Theatre

A glittering wedding turns into a horrific nightmare. In all its gothic, gruesome splendour, The Bloody Chamber thrills with a castle, a grand piano, a dark chamber haunted by bodies, and a powerful exploration of gender dynamics. Angela Carter's seminal feminist tale entertains and shocks in equal measure. Directed by Lucy Ashe, Newlands presents Bryony Lavery's adaptation of the gothic short story, based on the fairy tale of Bluebeard.

MUSIC

CHORAL CONCERT: HANDEL'S MESSIAH

Sunday 12 September
7.30pm – Speech Room

The Chapel Choir and Choir of Francis Holland School will join forces for a performance of this great work. Soloists will also be drawn from the choirs and accompanied by a small professional orchestra. Tickets not required.

COMMEMORATION CONCERT

Saturday 9 October
8pm – Speech Room

The annual Commemoration Concert, given in conjunction with John Lyon School, will feature a joint orchestra, a combined choir and samples of the best of the music-making taking place at each school. This year's programme will have a Remembrance theme as we celebrate the centenary of the War Memorial Building. Tickets not required.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY: FAURE'S REQUIEM

Sunday 14 November
7.30pm – Chapel

Performance of the Faure Requiem by a small choir of boys, joined by girls from Francis Holland School, to conclude our acts of Remembrance. Tickets not required.

MICHAELMAS CONCERT

Saturday 27 November
8pm – Speech Room

Always a highlight of the term as the Concert Band, Orchestra, Big Band and other ensembles perform for the first time in the new academic year. More than 100 boys will be performing in a programme with something for everyone. Tickets not required.

For information about these concerts, contact the Music Schools Administrator on music@harrowschool.org.uk or call 020 8872 8231.

ART

TAKK

Wednesday 15 September – Friday 8 October
6pm – Pasmore Gallery

Takk is an exhibition of 13 oil pastels by artist Jake Attree and a poem by Michael Symmons Roberts, all created in response to Pieter Brughel the Elder's painting The Procession to Calvary.

DERRICK SANTINI: LENTICULAR PHOTOGRAPHY

Tuesday 23 November
6pm – Pasmore Gallery

Photographer Derrick Santini joins Photography students in a masterclass on creating lenticular photographs. The masterclass will be followed by a private view of an exhibition of Santini's own work.

For more information and exhibition opening times contact Laurence Hedges at lwh@harrowschool.org.uk.

OLD SPEECH ROOM GALLERY

The OSRG will be closed until 4 November 2021.

LOYAL TO THE HILL: THE STORY OF ALEXIS THEODORE CASDAGLI AND HIS LOVE FOR HARROW SCHOOL

Thursday 4 November – Friday 3 December

This loan exhibition tells the remarkable story of Major Alexis Theodore Casdagli (*The Grove 1920*¹) and features his diaries, photographs, keepsakes and embroidered artworks. From his time working in his father's cotton business in Egypt, through his ordeal as a prisoner of war in Germany and his later career in the UK, the theme that linked together all the important experiences in his life was Harrow. Visitors are invited to bring their phones or tablets to this exhibition as QR-enhanced labels provide fascinating additional information for some of the key objects, the result of new research by his daughter, Alexis Penny Casdagli. See also www.cylixpress.co.uk/events.

The OSRG is generally open to the public from 2.30pm to 5pm on weekdays (excluding Mondays and Wednesdays) in term time. Occasionally, the gallery is closed for School business. Please call 020 8872 8205 to check opening times and dates before planning your visit.
