Dear Parents and Carers,

Today in school the children met their new class teacher and support staff they will be based with next year, and spent time in their new classrooms. I know the children were very excited and had a great time.

I am delighted to announce our staffing structure for next year:

Miss Webb will be getting married during the summer and will be changing her name to Mrs Hanrahan from September. Miss Horan will also be getting married during the holiday, but will continue to be known by the same name. Huge congratulations; I know you all will join me in wishing both teachers every happiness.

We have been fortunate enough to appoint a new SENDCo (special needs coordinator), Mrs Nurmohamed, who will join us from September. Mrs Nurmohamed is a highly experienced teacher and SENDCo and brings with her a wealth of knowledge and experience in SEN. She will teach in the resource base as well as lead SEN provision across the school. In addition, Mrs Nurmohamed will be a member of the Senior Leadership Team. I am sure you will join me in warmly welcoming her to the Colnbrook community.

Your child's new class teacher will be in touch with you via email in September. If you wish to speak to them before the summer break, please contact the school office to arrange an informal conversation over the phone, or you can speak to them at the gates at the beginning or at the end of the day.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. T Brunson
Headteacher
