Welcome!

My name is Alexis Myers, the new ESS Coordinator for BFHS. I was born and raised in southern California and graduated from Eastern New Mexico University after spending three years at California State University Northridge. I have taught all areas of special education from K-5 resource to K-12 functional skills. In addition to my fourteen years of experience in education, I also earned my bachelor’s degree in anthropology and spent two years working at an active archeological site. I am a self proclaimed bibliophile and love to spend my free time curled up with a good book. I love sports and was a gymnast and soccer player myself which fueled my interest in Unified Sports/Special Olympics.

Educational Philosophy

My goal as an educator is to challenge students and watch them grow to their full potential, not only in school but in life. As part of the ESS team, I will collaborate with staff and students to meet students’ individual needs. It is paramount that our students have every opportunity for a well-rounded education while promoting virtues of hard work and humility.

What I’m Looking Forward to...

I am excited to begin collaborating with the BFHS leadership and ESS team in order to provide the best opportunities for our students. I am looking forward to a great year!
