

Course Title: Drawing

Teacher: Rachel Schramm

Hour 3 - Semester 1 - 2021/22

0.5 Elective Credit

Listen to Rachel talk about the class

COURSE INFORMATION:

Course Description: In this class students will explore the artistic genre of drawing and the techniques needed to create a successful work of drawing. Students will practice the creative process an artist goes through by looking at past and present artists for inspiration, sketching and planning out the work thinking of composition, and utilizing techniques of drawing to make the work feel complete. Students will also practice giving and receiving feedback in order to refine a work of drawing. Students will display multiple works from the course in a gallery show at the end of the semester.

Prerequisites: None-An interest in drawing is helpful

Method of Instruction:Instruction will include a combination of presentation, discussion, and studio project time.

Course Objectives (standards):

Create- Plan - Formulate original concepts by practice, experimentation, and revision.

Create- Make-Develop unique, well-crafted works of art utilizing deliberate choice of media, tools, and techniques.

Respond-Interpret- Explain the intent, meanings and impacts of different media works of art and design, considering complex factors of context and perspective.

Connect-Cultural, Social, and Historical Awareness - Compare purposes of art in a variety of social, cultural, and historical contexts.

Present-Share- Curate and exhibit artwork for presentation, portfolio development, and/or preservation.

Graduate Vision Competencies:

Creative and Critical Thinker

Positive Risk Taker

