NEW!

Your Trusted Education Registration System

Manage Course Offerings, Clock Hours, Credits and More!

To meet the growing requirements for managing our courses and events, Olympic ESD 114 has partnered with a new program called pdEnroller. pdEnroller is a mobile-friendly web service for event registration, payment, clock hour approval, and clock hour recording. It has an attractive interface, is easy to use and adds much needed functionality for registrars, educators, and administrators.

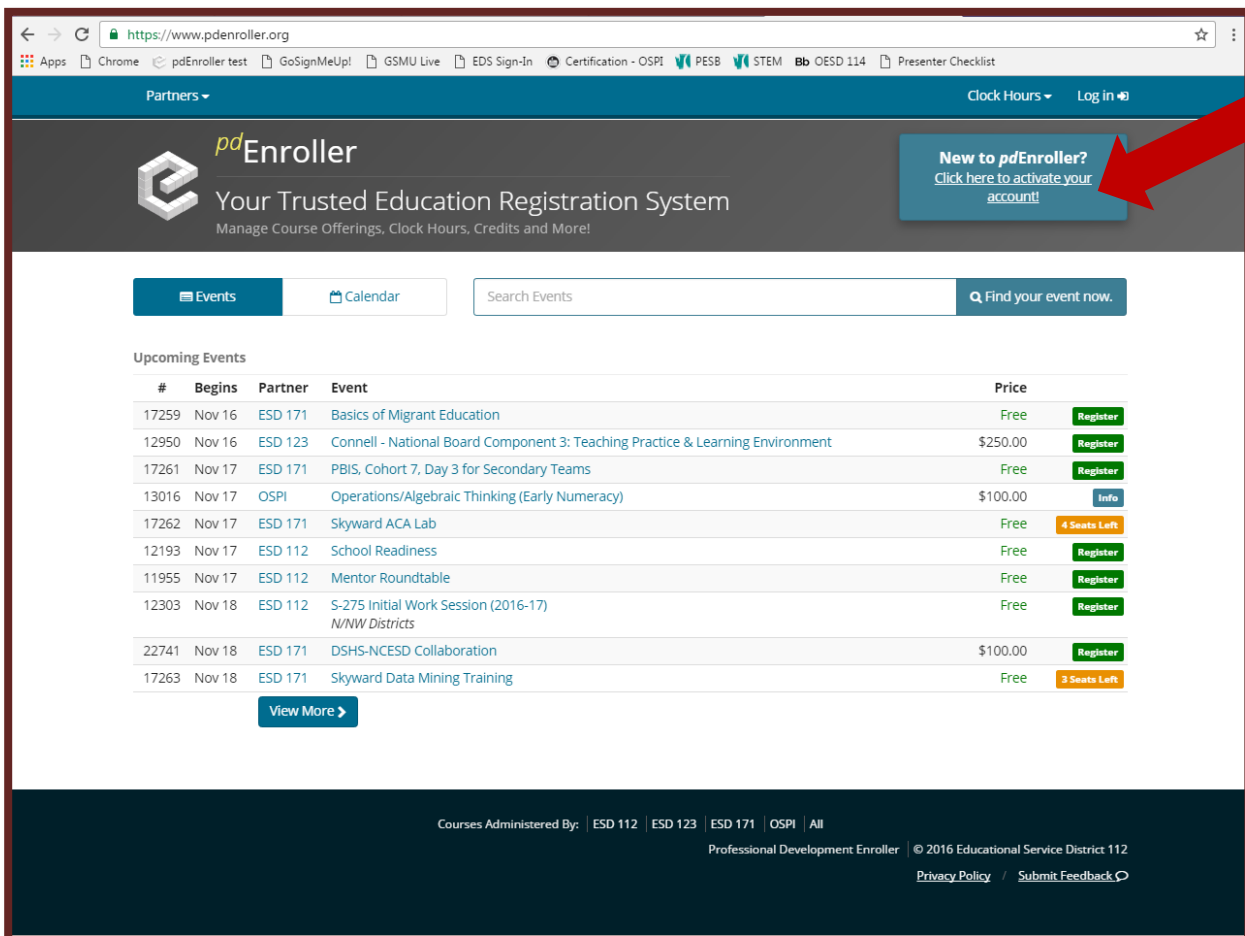

Visit www.pdenroller.org to sign up for your next class today!

In the Getting Started page are instructions and FAQ's on using our brand new pdEnroller system. Please visit the Getting Started page to learn about your first time logging into pdEnroller, and some additional help on submitting clock hour proposals, printing your transcript, and updating your profile.

USER GUIDE ver 1.0

Getting Started with pdEnroller

The first time you go to pdenroller.org you will need activate your account. Do not “log in”, but click the blue “New to pdEnroller” button as shown below and follow the “pdEnroller Onboarding Process” instructions on the next page. Activation will merge your clock hours, transcript and user account from our old system into pdEnroller.

The screenshot shows the pdEnroller website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Partners', 'Clock Hours', and 'Log in'. The main header features the pdEnroller logo and the tagline 'Your Trusted Education Registration System'. A prominent blue button with white text reads 'New to pdEnroller? Click here to activate your account!'. Below this, there is a search bar and a list of upcoming events.

Activating your pdEnroller account

Logging in: The first time you use pdEnroller you will need to activate your account.

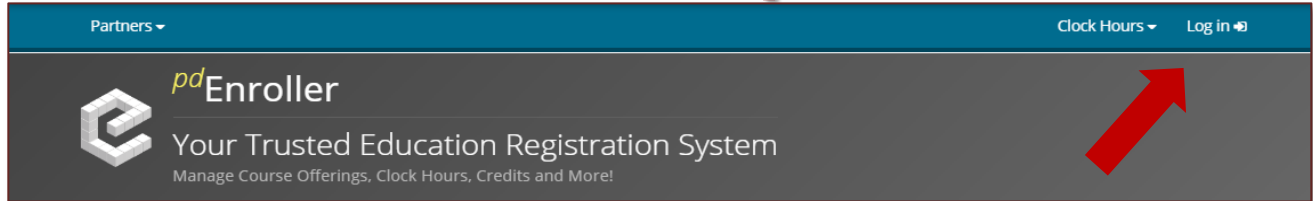

1. Click here to go to the Activation Screen (starting January 1, 2017)
2. Enter your email address* and click the green “Let’s Get Started” button
3. You will receive an auto-email from pdEnroller - Please check your clutter and spam folders for this email.
4. Follow the next few steps to merge your data from the old system into pdEnroller
5. Update your profile information

You will only need to do this step once. After activation you can simply login to pdEnroller with the Login link at the top right of the pdEnroller page.

*Use the email address that you used to register in the old system. If your email address is not recognized, try any other email addresses you may have. If you still have problems activating, contact us before creating a new profile.

The screenshot shows the pdEnroller website's onboarding page. The browser address bar displays 'https://www.pdenroller.org/welcome'. The page features a navigation bar with the pdEnroller logo, 'Partners', 'Clock Hours', and 'Log in'. The main heading reads 'Welcome to pdEnroller The New Professional Development Event Registration System'. A central box titled 'pdEnroller Onboarding Process' contains the following text: 'You may already have an account from another courses and registration system. Enter your email below to activate your imported account.' Below this is a form with a yellow-highlighted input field labeled 'Enter your email address (User ID or Login ID)'. A red arrow points to this field. The form also includes a 'Lets get started!' button. To the right of the form, there is a list of features and instructions for logging in. At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with 'Courses Administered By: ESD 112 | ESD 123 | ESD 171 | OSPI | All', 'Professional Development Enroller', '© 2016 Educational Service District 112', and links for 'Privacy Policy' and 'Submit Feedback'.

What can I do on pdEnroller?

The header of the pdEnroller website. It features a blue navigation bar with 'Partners' on the left and 'Clock Hours' and 'Log in' on the right. Below the navigation bar is a grey banner with the pdEnroller logo and the text 'Your Trusted Education Registration System' and 'Manage Course Offerings, Clock Hours, Credits and More!'. A red arrow points to the 'Log in' link in the top right corner.

To log in after your account has been activated, simply click “Log in” at the upper right corner of the pdEnroller.org homepage. Once you are logged in, you can:

1. Search classes to register for. By clicking on ESD 114 at the bottom portion of the screen, you can filter the classes that you see to just those offered by us. You have the additional capability of registering for classes being offered by OSPI or other partnering ESDs. Be sure to note where classes are being held before you register.

A dark blue horizontal bar with white text. It contains the text 'Courses Administered By:' followed by a series of links: 'ESD 112', 'ESD 113', 'ESD 114', 'ESD 123', 'ESD 171', 'OSPI', and 'All'.

2. Register for a class simply by clicking on the register button on the right.  You may add additional registrants by clicking . The next step button will take you to the payment page.

3. View upcoming classes that you registered for by clicking on your name at the top right corner of the page and selecting “My Events” from the dropdown list.

A screenshot of the user profile area. On the left is a 'My Account' sidebar with links for Profile, Password, and Preferences. The main content area shows 'My Events' and 'Upcoming Events'. On the right, a dropdown menu is open for the user 'Angela', showing options: 'Angela Wageman', 'Password', 'Preferences', 'My Events', 'Clock Hours', and 'Log off'. A red arrow points to the 'My Events' option.

4. Purchase your clock hours. After you attend a class and the attendance has been entered, you will receive an email notice that you have clock hours available. You may log in and then click on “Clock Hours”. From the drop down list, select “My Clock Hours”. You will be asked to complete a post event survey. Then you will be able to pay for your clock hours online.

5. View Transcript. You can view or print an unofficial transcript from the Clock Hours page. Official transcripts may still be ordered with a request form.

A screenshot of the 'My Credits and Clock Hours' page. The page title is 'My Credits and Clock Hours' and the sub-header is 'In Your Queue'. Below this is a table with columns for 'Event', 'Dates', 'Clock Hours Available', and 'Next Actions'. A message states: 'No classes in your upcoming queue offer clock hours, or the sponsoring organization doesn't support online payment.' Below the table, there are two informational notes: 'Clock Hours require course attendance, post event survey, and a processing fee in addition to course fees.' and 'You must choose between receiving credit and clock hours if both are available. Only one may be awarded.' At the bottom, there is a section for 'Completed Clock Hours' with a button labeled 'Download Unofficial Transcripts'. A red arrow points to this button.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How do I change my address or my password?

To make changes to your account, once you are logged in just click on your name at the upper right of the screen. On the dropdown list you will have options to edit your profile, change your password, and edit your preferences. Make sure to click the “Save” or “Update” button after you make your changes.

2. Can I still send in my clock hour forms to the OESD with a check or stop by the OESD office to register my hours?

Yes! If you prefer not to register and pay for your clock hours online, you still have the option of printing your clock hour form and sending it in to our office.

3. Is there an app for that?

Yes! There is a free pdEnroller app available for Android users. Download on your device and manage your registrations and clock hours anywhere.

4. How do I submit a clock hour proposal on the new pdEnroller system?

OESD 114 now accepts Clock Hour Proposals online. If you don't already have a registration/clock hour proposal online account, you will need to create an account to begin using the online proposal process. This is the same log in that you use to register for courses. Each time you submit a proposal, you will use your own personal log in and password to access the proposal system. Contact Angela Wageman for assistance setting up this system role.
