

KENNEDY HOUSE

TRADITIONS

Every year, Kennedy House competes for The Crutch in an annual football game against Hamill House. In 1947, Kennedy player Sandy Souter '49 tackled his coach, John "Jack" Chivers, breaking Chivers' leg. A few games later, Souter tackled Hamillite Jeb Wofford '49, and the two tumbled into Chivers, breaking his crutch. Kennedy and Hamill have competed for the broken crutch ever since. Other Kennedy traditions include the Kennedy Rent-a-Friend program, in which Lawrenceville faculty hire "Kennedyites" to run errands or perform chores, with the proceeds going to charity.

HOUSE CHEER

"K-E-N-N-E-D-Y!

Circle K will never die!"

(Chanted several times in succession)
