What is the PSAT?

PSAT/NMSQT®

What is the PSAT/NMSQT?

- 4 million students took the PSAT/NMSQT in October 2015.
- This fall millions more students took the test because it:
 - Tests what students learn in high school and what they need to succeed in college.
 - Measures the same skills and knowledge as the SAT® in a way that makes sense for 10th and 11th graders.
 - Is the entry point to the National Merit Scholarship Program.
 - Is the perfect starting point for practicing for the SAT.
 - Gives students access to a personalized SAT study plan on Khan Academy®.
 - Identifies students who are likely to succeed in AP® courses.
 - Helps students explore their career interests through a new tool called "Roadmap to Careers."
 - Connects students to scholarship opportunities.
- Scores will be available online starting on December 12.

Get to Know the PSAT/NMSQT®

- The PSAT/NMSQT is highly relevant to your future success because it focuses on the skills and knowledge at the heart of your education. It measures:
 - What you learn in high school
 - What you need to succeed in college
- The PSAT/NMSQT measures reading, writing and language, and math skills developed over many years.
- The PSAT/NMSQT does not ask for facts from literature, history, or science, or for recall of math formulas, because it measures your reasoning and critical thinking skills.
- You don't have to discover secret tricks or cram the night before.
- There is no penalty for guessing.
- The test length is 2 hours, 45 minutes.

What Are the Benefits of Taking the PSAT/NMSQT®?

- Prepare for the SAT®
- Get free, personalized Official SAT Practice on Khan Academy®
- Start getting ready for college with college and career planning tools
- Enter the National Merit® Scholarship Program
- See which AP® courses for which you might be ready
- Get admission and financial aid information from colleges

Your NMSC Selection Index

139

NMSC uses a Selection Index score based on PSAT/NMST scores as an initial screen of students who enter its scholarship programs. The Selection Index score is double the sum of your Reading, Writing and Language, and Math Test scores.

Eligibility Information

You meet entry requirements for the 2020 National Merit Scholarship Program and your Selection Index score will be considered among 1.6 million program entrants.

If your Selection Index places you among the 50,000 high scorers who qualify for National Merit Scholarship Program recognition, you will be notified next September when qualifying Selection Index scores will be made available.

Entry Requirements

Information you provided on your answer sheet:

High school student: YES

Year to complete high school and enroll full time in college: 2020

Total years to be spent in grades 9–12: 4

National Merit Scholarship Corporation

National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) conducts the National Merit® Scholarship Program, an academic competition for recognition and college scholarships.

To designate students who qualify for recognition in its 2020 competition, NMSC will consider the 2018 PSAT/NMST® Selection Index scores of some 1.6 million test takers (usually high school juniors) who meet program entry requirements. For more information, please visit: www.nationalmerit.org.

If any of your responses to NMSC's "Entry Requirements" questions are inaccurate or there has been a change in plans that may affect program entry, write immediately to:

How Do I Access My Online PSAT/NMSQT® Scores and Reports?

Log in to an existing College Board account or create a new one at studentscores.collegeboard.org.

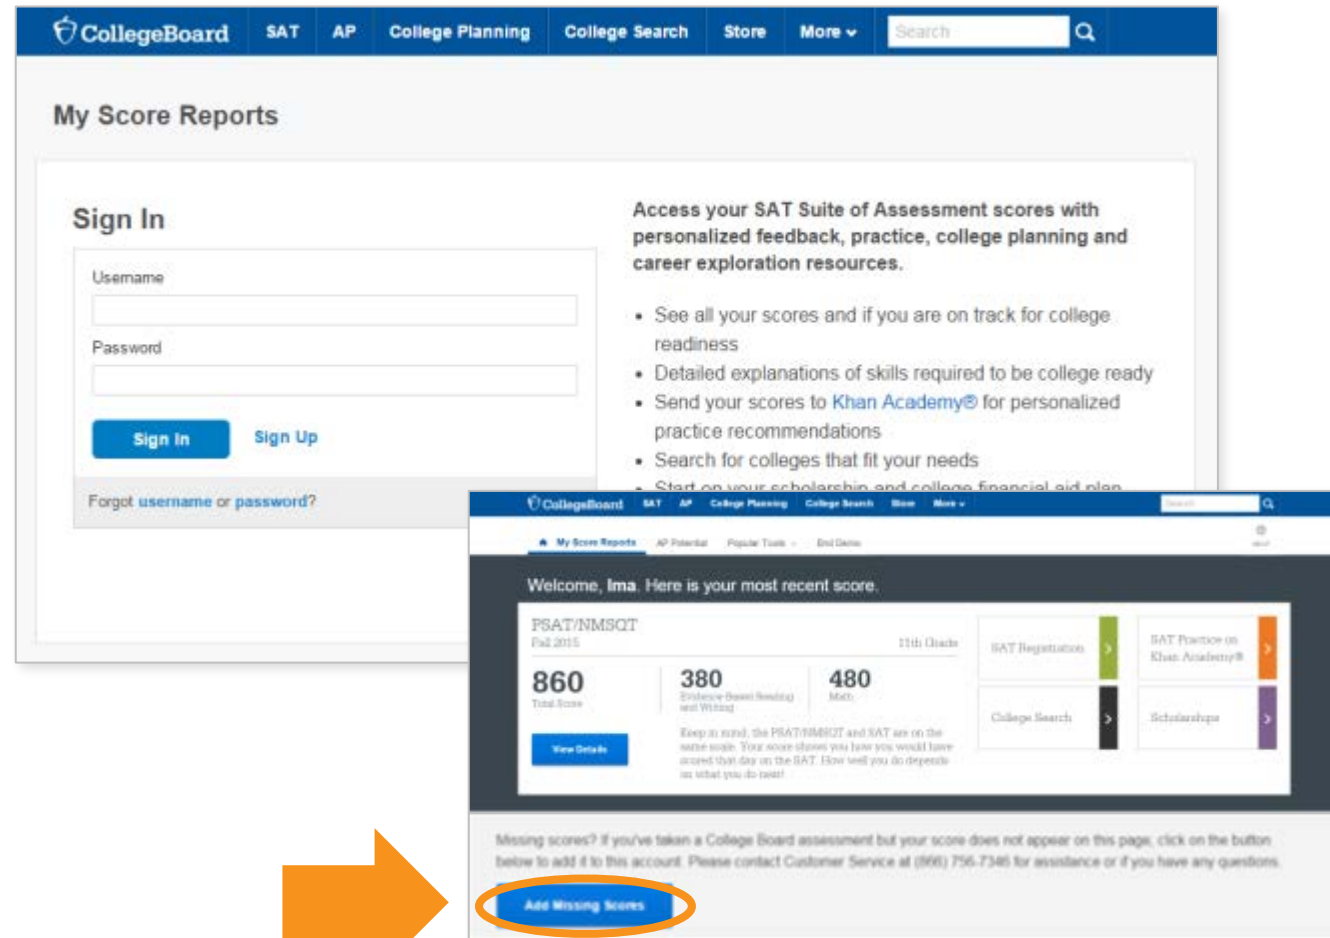

The screenshot shows the CollegeBoard website's 'My Score Reports' section. At the top is a navigation bar with links for CollegeBoard, SAT, AP, College Planning, College Search, Store, and More, along with a search bar. Below this, the 'My Score Reports' heading is followed by a 'Sign In' section. This section contains input fields for 'Username' and 'Password', a blue 'Sign In' button (which is circled in orange), and a 'Sign Up' link. A link for 'Forgot username or password?' is also present. To the right of the sign-in fields, there is a list of benefits for accessing scores, such as seeing all scores, getting personalized feedback, and searching for colleges.

The screenshot shows the 'Create Your Student Account' form. It starts with a heading 'Create Your Student Account' and a paragraph explaining that the account is for everything including SAT, AP, PSAT/NMSQT, CLEP, and BigFuture activities. Below this is a section titled 'General Student Information' with three input fields: 'First (given) name: *', 'Middle initial:', and 'Last name (surname): '. A legend indicates that '' means 'Required'.

How Do I See My Detailed Scores?

How Will I Do on the SAT®?

The predicted SAT score is an initial projection based on current SAT data and concordance.

How Did My Score Measure Against the Benchmarks?

Section, test, and subscores all report scores in performance zones that indicate whether you are on track for meeting the college readiness benchmarks on the SAT®.

Section scores

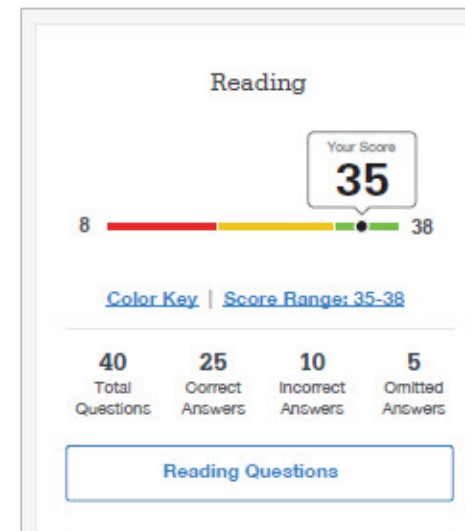

Need to Strengthen Skills = below grade-level benchmark by more than one year

Approaching Benchmark = below grade-level benchmark by one year or less

Meets or Exceeds Benchmark = at or above grade-level benchmark

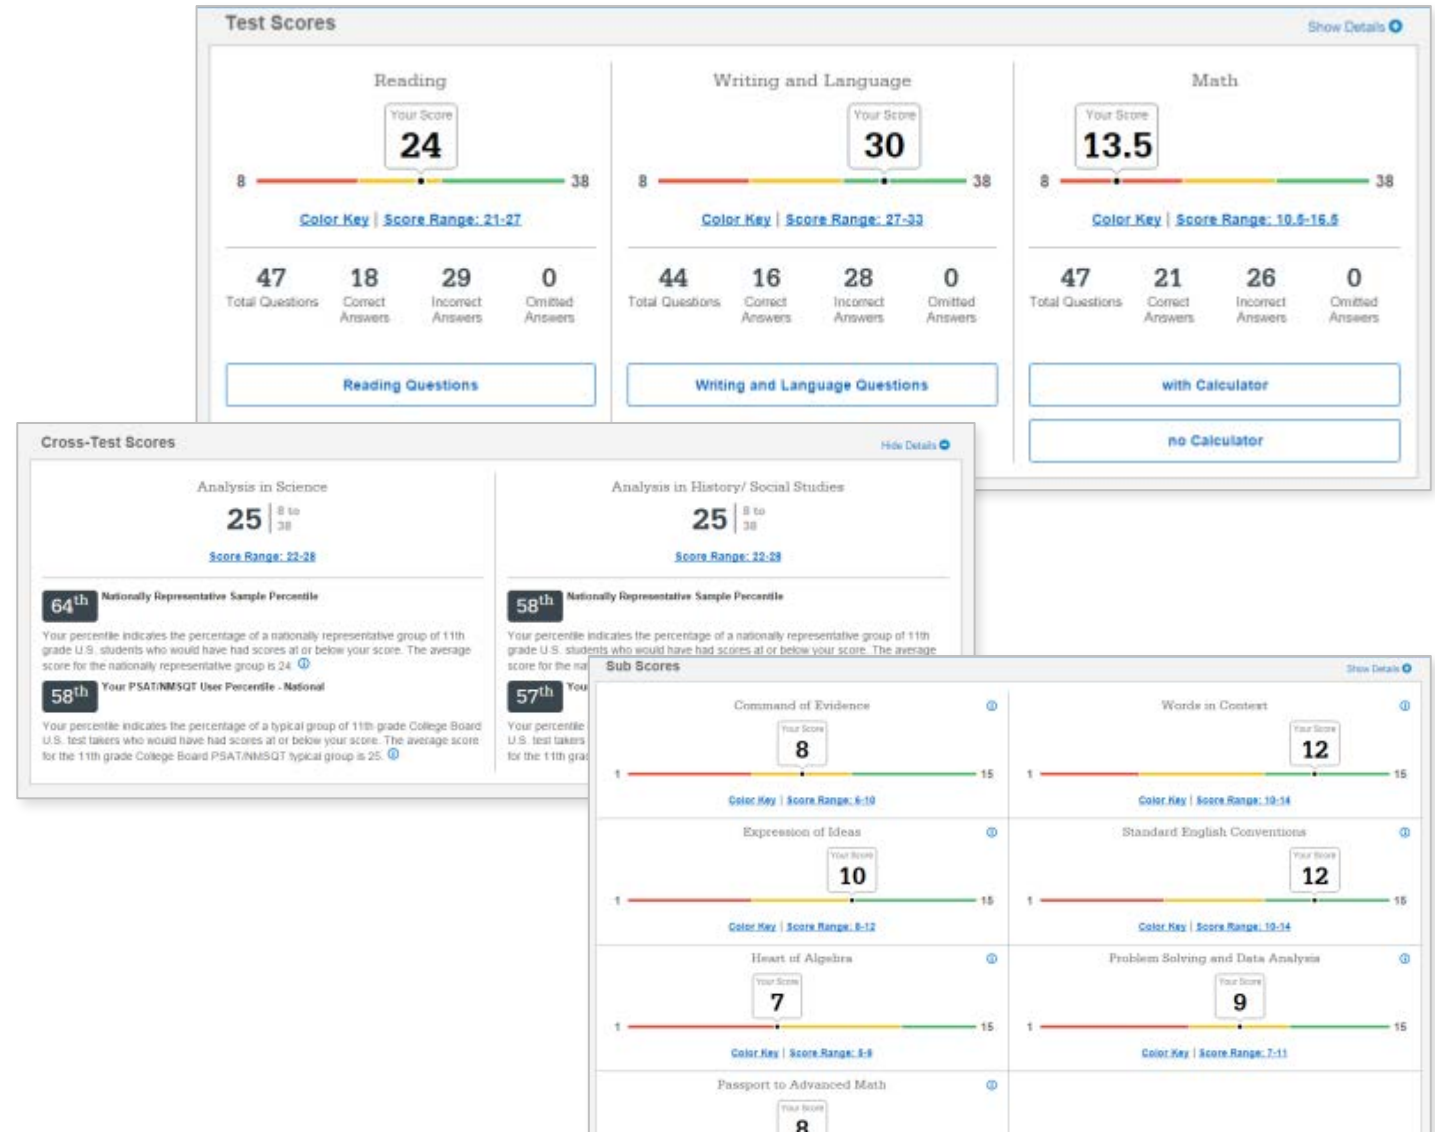

Test scores and subscores

Red, yellow, and green ranges reflect areas of strengths and weaknesses compared to the typical performance of students

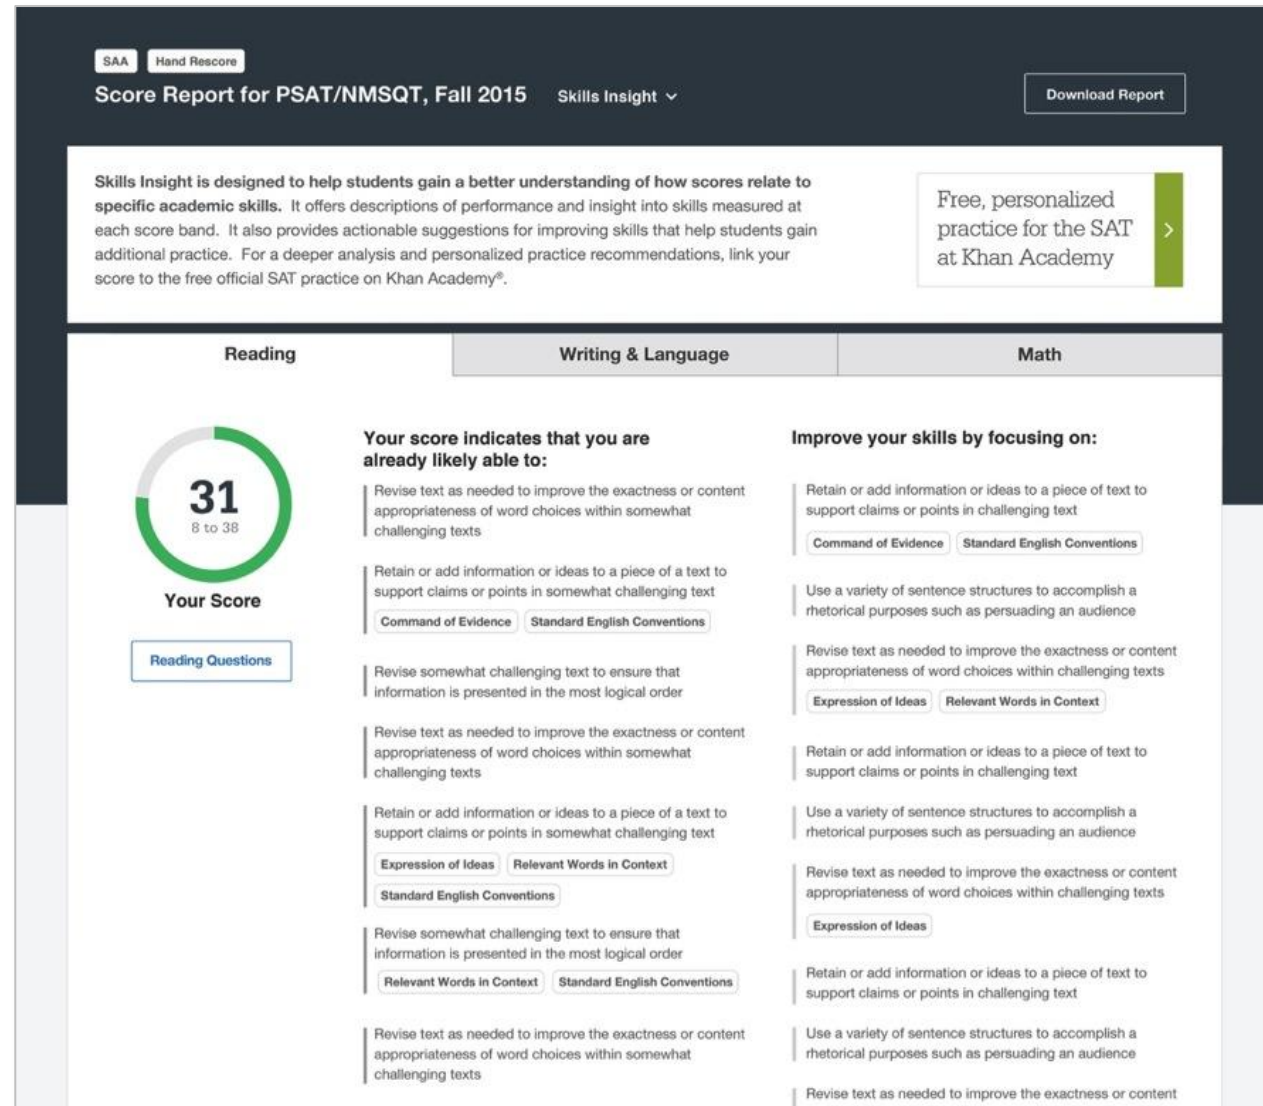

What Do My Scores Tell Me?

Test scores, cross-test scores, and subscores give students insightful information about their strengths and areas for improvement.

How Can I Improve My Academic Skills?

Skills Insight™ informs you about what you are already likely able to do, and how you can improve your skills.

What Is My AP Potential™?

AP Potential uses scores from the PSAT/NMSQT® to provide predictions for 21 AP® Exams.

- College Board research shows that students who score a 3 or higher on an AP Exam typically experience greater academic success in college and are more likely to earn a college degree on time than non-AP students.

AP Potential and Coursework

What is AP?

Advanced Placement is a College Board program that enables students to pursue college-level studies - with the opportunity to earn college credit, advanced placement or both - while still in high school. The program offers courses in more than 30 subjects. For a full list of courses, click here. If you've taken a College Board assessment in 9th grade or higher, see below for a list of AP courses that you are likely to succeed in. If you've taken an assessment in 9th grade or higher but don't see any AP courses listed below, click here to link the scores to this account or contact Customer Service at (866)756-7546 for assistance and questions.

High School Core Coursework

Colleges have different high school course requirements, but all expect you to take classes that challenge your skills. Try to take a core course load of 4 years of English and at least 3 years of Math, Science, and Social Studies. As you work towards your high school diploma, you should consider taking courses that align with your future career interest and college major, which may require more than the standard core course load. You may also want to think about taking Advanced Placement courses in your later years of high school.

Potential
Your scores show that you have the potential for success in this course. Speak with your teachers or school counselor to see if you have the appropriate prerequisite courses and find out how you can enroll.

Some Potential
Your scores show that you have some potential for success in this AP course. Having interest in the course subject as well as dedication to working hard will increase your chances for success. Speak with your teachers or school counselor to see if you have the appropriate prerequisite courses and find out how you can enroll.

Potential Not Yet Indicated
Your scores show that you may need more preparation and support to be successful in this course. Share your goals and interests with your teachers and school counselor, and learn which high school courses can prepare you for AP courses in the future. If you're already taking an AP course, you can still succeed through hard work and motivation. Talk to your teachers regularly so they can support you.
