

Eden Prairie Schools maintains assigned attendance areas in order to keep class-sizes level districtwide. However, if you live within Eden Prairie School District but would like your child to attend an Eden Prairie School outside of your assigned attendance area, you may complete this In-District Transfer Application Form. Questions can be directed to the Welcome Center (8100 School Road). Call 952-975-7008 or e-mail register4ep@edenpr.org.

- Please complete one form per child
- Principals from both schools will meet to evaluate requests
- Consideration of the request will only be given if space is available
- Only one request is allowed per year

- Transportation of the student shall be the responsibility of the parent or guardian, buses will not cross boundary lines
- If the reason for the request is related to day care, the parent/guardian must submit a letter from the Daycare Provider which includes the Daycare Provider name, address, phone number, and statement that the child is attending that daycare
- Any request due to a future move must be accompanied with a lease or purchase agreement of home
- Parents will be notified of decisions in writing
- Approved requests are valid until a new request is submitted
