School Description

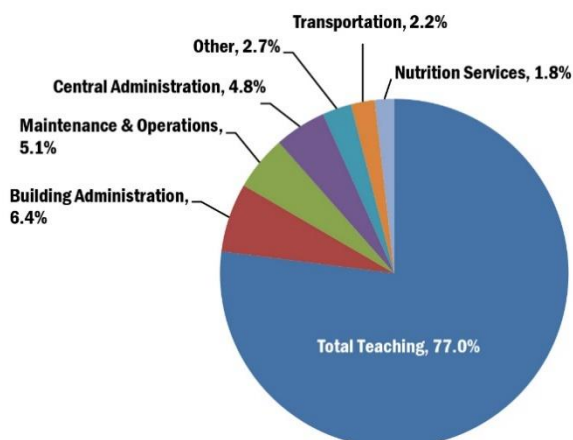

Horace Mann Elementary is a high-achieving community of learners located on Education Hill in Redmond, Washington. The staff is made up of dedicated and professional individuals who put students first in all decisions. The supportive parent community and strong PTSA have been key players in Mann's success.

Mann is a school where diligence is honored. There is a strong commitment to meet the unique needs of every student. The Mann community pays close attention to developing a positive learning experience for all students. We understand that an excellent education allows students to have choices in their future.

Our PTSA has developed a wide range of enrichment activities for our student body. Some of these optional, after-school opportunities include classes in website design, Spanish, chess and jump rope.
