Dear Parents/Guardians of the Barre Unified Union School District:

We are writing to you to let you know of the great learning opportunities for you and your child(ren) under Title I, Parental Rights and Engagement. These opportunities will come in many different avenues such as; events, educational interventions and a variety of communications to support you and your child(ren) in achieving academic success, as well as growing the Barre community's future.

Part of the success plan is knowing your parental rights as a partner in learning as part of Title I Parental Rights and Engagement we are required to share with you for your review.

Your Parental Rights Title 1, Parental Rights and Engagement:

- Be involved and make requests of regular meetings to express your opinions and concerns.
- Be provided information on your child's level of achievement of local and state assessments.
- Be provided information on your child's level of achievement in Reading/Language Arts, Mathematics, Social Studies and Science.
- Request and receive information on the qualifications of your child's teacher.
- Be informed if your child is taught by a non-certified teacher for more than four consecutive weeks.

Our mission is to provide the highest quality educational experience for all of our students within the Barre Unified Union School District. If you have further questions or concerns, please contact your teacher, building principal or the superintendent's office.

We look forward to partnering with you for success.

Sincerely,

Mary Ellen Simmons, MSW, EdD
Director of Curriculum
Barre Unified Union School District
