The Davie County School Board, superintendent and district leadership team are pleased to announce the addition of Bryant Copeland as principal at North Davie Middle School.

Mr. Copeland joins the Davie County Schools family after being in education for 20 years, most recently as the administrator over 1,400 middle school students in virtual learning in Onslow County Schools. His experience includes five years in administration and 15 years in the classroom, at both the middle and high school level. He holds a Bachelor of Music in Music Education, and earned his Master of School Administration and Curriculum, both from East Carolina University.

Mr. Copeland is a proven leader with a forward-thinking approach, and gift for building relationships with students, staff and community. He was selected as the Onslow County School Arts Administrator of the Year, Onslow County Schools Technology Administrator of the Year, a finalist for Onslow County Schools Assistant Principal of the Year for two years, and a finalist for Onslow County Schools Teacher of the Year.

We want to welcome Mr. Copeland to our area, with his wife who is also an educator, and three daughters. Mr. Copeland is excited to lead the staff at North Davie Middle and called it a “wonderful place to learn and work.” Mr. Copeland enjoys cooking for his wife and daughters, spending time outdoors, and spending time with family and friends.
