

Approved Classroom Accommodations

Presentation and Instruction

- Provide class notes that include key vocabulary and concepts
- Break lengthy assignments into smaller components with intermediate deadlines
- Use audio books
- Utilize a reader
- Allow recording of lectures with teacher permission

Response Accommodations

- Use technology for note-taking assignments and tests
- Use a calculator
- Use spell and/or grammar check
- Utilize a scribe

Setting Accommodations

- Provide preferential seating
- Provide small group setting for testing

Timing and Scheduling Accommodations

- Allow extended time on quizzes, tests and exams (50% more)
- Allow frequent breaks

Standardized Testing Accommodations

These accommodations are specific to testing such as the ERB, ACT and SAT where the boards make their own decisions regarding accommodations for their test and not the responsibility of Country Day.*

- Record answers in test booklet
- Stop the clock breaks
- Testing over multiple days