

ST. FRANCIS EPISCOPAL SCHOOL

School of Music

An Instrumental and Vocal Program

St. Francis students benefit from a strong group music program that helps them develop a basic musical foundation. Those who want to delve into music more deeply can take their education one step further with the St. Francis School of Music. Led by some of the finest musical talent in Houston, this instrumental and vocal program allows students to explore individual musical interests at their own pace and on their own developmental level.

Lessons occur throughout the school day at times approved by divisions. For more information about the St. Francis School of Music or to inquire about lesson availability, please contact the Explore and Extend Office at 713.458.6467 or email MNewsom@StFrancisHouston.org.

Lessons occur weekly, with schedules coordinated by the divisions and the director of Explore and Extend. Registration is available through the Explore and Extend program registration. Lessons are $890 per semester, including all books, materials and recital fees. Instruments are not included.
