

Student's with Accommodations

Student's that receive 504 accommodations through Ball High School may receive accommodations through Galveston College. Your high school counselor will provide Galveston College with your accommodations. Please note that college level accommodations are more restrictive than traditional 504 accommodations. Your counselor will discuss these with you and provide you a copy during course selection.