

THE LEVERING SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

St. Paul's School for Girls is proud to offer the Levering Scholarships which were established in honor of our first Head of School Rosalind Levering. Middle school and upper school students new to the SPSG community are eligible to apply for the Levering Scholarships.

Eligibility

Students new to the SPSG community applying to grades 5–11.

Award Details

The Levering Scholarships are up to $7,500 grants toward tuition costs and awarded annually. Scholarship recipients in good academic standing and actively involved in the life of the school will carry the scholarship throughout the completion of their time at SPSG.

Criteria

The scholarships are awarded to exceptional students who are enthusiastic learners and demonstrate original thought, creativity, perseverance, and integrity, qualities reminiscent of the pioneering spirit of Rosalind Levering. Levering Scholars show potential for leadership in the SPSG community both inside and outside of the classroom. Such well-rounded scholars seek to engage in the life of the school's robust arts, athletics, and leadership offerings.

Application Process

Candidates must complete and submit all application materials associated with the St. Paul's School for Girls' admissions process and complete the Levering Scholarship essay by December 31, 2021.

Levering Scholarship Essay

In a well-organized, double-spaced essay of one-to-two pages, please describe one experience that demonstrates your creativity, energy, and perseverance. The essay must be completed by the student and submitted to SPSGAdmissions@stpaulsmd.org by December 31, 2021.

Selection

The Admissions Committee and head of school will make the scholarship selections.

Notification

The Levering Scholarship recipients will receive a phone call from Head of School Ereni Gleason Malfa '89 on February 17, 2022.
