Work Session

A. Final Budget Amendment for 2019-20

Dana Taylor and Matt McDaniel reviewed the Final Budget Amendment for the 2019-2020 school year. Items reviewed included: the approach used for budget development and how COVID-19 has affected pricing; review of financial position of current fiscal year; budget considerations for 2020-21; preliminary forecast for 2020-21; how the economic forecast impacts the alignment of expenditures with revenues; review of other major and non-major funds budget amendments and forecasts.

Board discussion included: clarification on the net decrease in State Aid; receiving of and estimated reductions in state funding per pupil; pricing out and planning of various learning models (normal operations, hybrid and distance learning); COVID-19 task force; surveying parents; federal aid; budget; and sinking fund.

B. Draft Budget for 2020-21

Matt McDaniel presented the Draft Budget for 2020-21. While there is currently no state budget, and we do not know how much state aid we will receive, the district is making revenue assumptions and will remain conservative. The district will continue to analyze all major and non-major fund budgets as we continue to move through the planning process of this pandemic.

C. COVID-19 Medical Update

Dr. Shaner introduced Tanya Regmont, RCS school nurse, and thanked her for all of her work and continued guidance through this pandemic. Tanya introduced Dr. Jaime Hope, attending physician in Emergency Medicine at Beaumont Health, who gave an update on the current status of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Board discussion included: next wave of COVID; Dr. Hope's input on what school should look like in the fall in order to send kids to school; herd immunity; precautionary measures for crowds; clarification on how COVID is spread; mental health impacts of the pandemic;

Additional Business

A. Citizens Present at the Meeting

Marie Mack, Para educator, inquired about layoffs for employees.

Diane and Steve Glinksi, district parents, spoke about a 504 plan and an IEP for their child.

B. Members of the Administration

Dr. Shaner congratulated everyone who was part of Honors Convocation and expressed his appreciation for all of the staff who made it possible.

Dr. Shaner asked for continued patience and understanding relating to the planning of graduation.

Finally, Dr. Shaner thanked Tanya Regmont and Dr. Jaime Hope for their hard work and dedication.
