0-Period

Rose Choir and Concert Choir

Supported Study

The Hive and the Academic Support Center are open for drop-in student support. Academic support teachers and tutors will be available for individual and small group student support. No sign-up necessary.

Flex Block

Quiet and collaborative study spaces open for students. Flex block offers on-campus flexible time for students to complete work and connect with peers. Teachers are available to students during flex block. Flex block is also used for special events and special offerings to students.

Mass/Study in TA

Students meet in TA for attendance before masses and assemblies. If an assembly or mass is not scheduled, students will attend a study session in TA.

Faculty PD

The Hive and Academic Support Center will be open for student support. Teachers are unavailable to students during professional development.

Activity Block

Dedicated block of time for students to participate in extra and co-curriculars or receive additional support and help from, counselors, teachers and tutors.

Office Hours

Teachers will be available in designated spaces to provide individual and small group student support.
