

Crandall ISD Report Card and UIL Eligibility Calendar
2021-2022

At the middle school (7-8), a student’s six-week grade shall consist of 50% daily grades, and 50% test/major project grades. The six weeks test, if given, shall count with other tests and major projects to total the 50% of tests/major projects. A minimum of one daily grade per week and two major grades/test grades per six week period. The campus principal may adjust the number of required grades if extenuating circumstances occur.

At the high school (9-12), a student’s six weeks grade shall consist of 50% major grades and 50% minor grades for on grade level courses. For Honors or AP courses the weight shall be 60% for major grades and 40% for minor grades. All classes will have 1 major grade for every two weeks of a grading period and 1 minor grade for every week of the grading period.

Policies EIA\(LOCAL\) and EIE\(LOCAL\) address the grading policy. All teachers must review these policies and the requirements carefully.

Progress Reports are provided to any secondary student with an average of 75% or lower at the three week grade check.
