

Deaf and Hard of Hearing Support

Deaf and Hard of Hearing Support students have a medically diagnosed degree of limited auditory acuity that interferes with normal mobility, access, or performance. Students in MTSD who have need for this type of Support typically receive Deaf and Hard of Hearing related services as a component of their IEP. Educational Interpreters who meet state qualifications are provided as determined by the IEP team to work individually with students during instruction and/or social activities.