

EQUITY DECONSTRUCTED

Using Stanford d.school's equity-centered design framework, you'll notice, empathize, define, ideate, prototype, test, and reflect on short and long-term research projects, sharing your solutions with the school and community.

Solve real-world equity problems pertaining to issues such as race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, class and the intersectionality of these.

INSTRUCTOR: KAVITA GUPTA

COLLABORATORS: BONNIE BELSHE, DOREEN BONDE, HANNAH GOULD, VENNESSA NAVA, JULIA SATTERTHWAITE, AMY YOUNG
