Dear Mount Greylock School Committee
Superintendent Grady

I am writing this letter to inform you of my resignation from Mount Greylock Regional School District. It has been an honor to work for you as your Assistant Superintendent of Business and Finance. I am sad my time with you has been short.

According to my contract I need to provide a 90 day notice. Effective today my 90 day notice will be July 09, 2020. I am happy to discuss ways I can be of service to you if needed. Business Administrators are difficult to find. Because of that, I am happy to provide service to the district after my termination date in any capacity you need.

Your staff in the district office is exemplary. They have made me feel like family. For that I will forever be grateful.

With deepest respect,

Andrea Wadsworth
