

Thomas Makes A Difference Daily In Those She Comes In Contact With

TUPELO, Miss. — Melissa Thomas has been a proud member of the Tupelo Public School District for eight years and is entering her third year as Director of Secondary Curriculum after previously serving as principal at Lawndale.

As an Ole Miss student, she received her Bachelor’s degree, while recently completing her doctorate in Philosophy in Education.

The Shannon native hasn’t always seen herself working within schools, though, with previous thoughts of joining the military or embarking on a nursing career.

She is very grateful for husband Daniel and daughters Maliyah and Mia, hoping that she can be the amazing role model her mother has been to her.

The perfect vacation destination for her is anywhere with a beach, preferably hanging out with Michael Jordan and riding around in a GMC Sierra 1500 truck.

And if there is a must-have food, it’s fried chicken.

This week’s TPSD Administrative Focus is Melissa Thomas, sponsored by Sunny 93 and Buffalo Wild Wings.
