

CONCERT CHOIR

Concert Choir is a full year course that meets twice in each four day rotation. Students will read three and four part choral scores, with a focus on fundamental aspects of reading and performing as a blended choral ensemble.

This course is offered to all choir students, grades 9-12, who wish to continue their study of vocal techniques, ensemble rehearsal and performance techniques and music literacy. Participation in all scheduled rehearsals, concerts and outside performing events as listed in the Choir Handbook are required. Adherence to the department policies including the Code of Ethics and performance dress code is also required.

As part of the High School Choral Program, all choral students will progress through a Repertoire Cycle in which they will complete and in-depth study of repertoire from various time periods and genres. All choral will target one block of the Cycle each year, and after four years, all participating choral students will have studied each genre in the Repertoire Cycle regardless of ensemble.

Course Overview

All students in the Fairfield Choral Program progress through an Ensemble Sequence and Vocal Skill Level.

In order to address and properly develop male changing voices, ensemble voicings and balance, bass voices will meet skill levels V and VI in concert choir and skill levels VII and VIII in Chamber Choir.

Block 1

Classical

- Focus Question 1: What are some major differences between Baroque music and Classical music?
 - Instrumentation
 - Baroque: recorder, harpsichord, oboe, violin, viola, cello
 - Classical: adding orchestral instruments, timpani, horn, bass
 - Melody and Harmony
 - Baroque music was often polyphonic. Cannons, inventions and other such pieces were commonplace. Music was written in Suites, which were basically collections of dance numbers... gavotte, waltz, minuet, air, gigue, etc. Baroque music is detached, fairly stiff, without vibrato, and with a lot of ornamentation, such as trills.
 - Classical: Monophonic music, single melody and harmony with a counter melody. Dynamics, Tempo changes and rubato appear. Ornamentation is less common. Major works are symphonies with 3-4 movements.
- Focus Question 2: What are the major musical characteristics of Classical music?
 - Homophonic, melody above a chordal accompaniment, light/clear texture, frequent changes of mood/timbre through use of variety in keys, melodies (shorter), rhythms and dynamics, clear cut phrases/cadences

American Folk

- Focus Question 1: What is the origin of American Folk music?
 - Folk music has been community focused music of the working class. Folk music is accessible to all, and is something anyone can understand and in which everyone is welcome to participate. Folk songs range in subject matter from war, work, civil rights and economic hardship to nonsense, satire and love songs.
 - “From the onset of American history, folk music has shown up at times when the people needed it most. The earliest folk songs rose from slave fields as spirituals such as “Down by the Riverside” and “We Shall Overcome.” These are songs about struggle and hardship but are also full of hope. They sprang from the need of the worker to go to a place in her brain where she knew there was more to the world than the hardships she was facing at the time.”
- Focus Question 2: What are the major musical characteristics of American Folk music?
 - Acoustic instrument accompaniment
 - Simple chord progressions
 - Simple time signatures such as 3/4 or 4/4.
 - "Sharp" or natural keys such as C, D, E, G or A.
 - Singable or “catchy” melody

Block 2

Romantic

- Focus Question 1: What are the major characteristics of music from the Romantic Era?
 - Song-like melodies (lyrical), as well as many chromatic harmonies and discords.
 - Big orchestras
 - Different “musical structures” like the song cycle, nocturne, concert etude, arabesque and rhapsody
 - A harmonic structure based on movement from I-IV rather than the traditional I-V and use of more elaborate harmonic progressions
 - A greater emphasis on melody to sustain musical interest.
 - Dramatic contrasts in dynamics and pitch
 - Singers require greater range of tone color, dynamics and pitch
 - Expression of human emotion through music
 - Greater emphasis on melody
- Focus Question 2: Who are prominent composers of the Romantic Era:
 - Brahms, Tchaikovsky, Liszt, Schumann, Verdi, Berlioz, Wagner, Schubert
- Focus Question 3: What is an Art Song and what makes it Romantic Music?
 - Lyrical song with musical elements associated carefully with text
 - Goal was turning text into something “tangible that could be emotionalized through music”
 - The accompaniment enhanced the mood/meaning of the text as it created harmonic, rhythmic, and melodic material independent of the voice part, but also supportive of it.
 - Emphasis on melody and expression of human emotion

Opera

- Focus Question 1: What is opera?
 - an extended dramatic composition, in which all parts are sung to instrumental accompaniment, that usually includes arias, choruses, and recitatives, and that sometimes includes ballet.
- Focus Question 2: What is the difference between opera and musical theater?
 - They are both made up of several songs, or musical pieces, connected by lines of dialogue; this is usually spoken in a musical, whereas in an opera it is performed as a recitative in which the dialogue transpires in a melodic or musical pattern.
- Focus Question 3: What are the major voice parts for opera?
 - In the operatic systems there are seven basic voice types and then several sub-types within each type. For women: soprano, mezzo-soprano, and contralto. For men: tenor, countertenor, baritone, and bass. Within choral music there are only four categories for adult singers.
- Focus Question 4: What are some vocal techniques commonly used in opera singing?
 - Vibrato, volume/projection, diction

Block 3

Renaissance Era

- Focus Question 1: What are the major characteristics of Motets?
 - Sacred choral works performed in worship services.
 - Strict style; little accent or emphasis on words, more focus on the melody and harmony.
 - Harmonies are “smooth and predictable” as opposed to dissonant.
 - All singers echo and overlap one another to create more texture. The voices blend clearly even when the parts become more melismatic, or several notes are sung on one syllable.
 - Most are written in Latin.

- Focus Question 2: What are the major musical characteristics of Madrigals?
 - Secular topics (love, humor etc.) presented for entertainment
 - Traditionally, polyphonic madrigals are unaccompanied; the number of voices varies from two to eight, and most frequently from three to six.
 - Rhythm, meter and tempo were often manipulated to more effectively depict the text. Smaller note values were used in 4/4 as opposed to 2/2.
 - Text and word painting was very important and dissonance and less predictable cadences are used to that effect.
 - Polyphonic texture
 - Most are written in the vernacular: French, Italian

Spiritual/Gospel

 - 19th century, African American church, taking traditional African American songs and “gospelizing” them integrating musical ideas and expressions from genres such as blues, jazz, rock, soul, classical, and country)
- Focus Question 2: What are the major musical characteristics of Gospel music?

 - rich harmonies, singable melody, specific text, distinct rhythms: syncopation

Block 4

Baroque

- Focus Question 1: What are some of the vocal genres that developed during the Baroque Era?
 - Early operas: chorus/dance/instrumental pieces – the music heightened the story – arias and ritornello
 - Oratorio – a SACRED story told with arias/chorus/recitatives – originally acted out and eventually gave way to music presented only.
 - Cantata – song for soloists/choir often accompanied by organ or orchestra for the church
 - Passion – similar to an oratorio, but specific in context of the Crucifixion of Christ
- Focus Question 2: What are the major musical characteristics of Baroque music?
 - figured bass, major/minor shifts, forms (binary, fugue, counterpoint), energetic rhythms, long melodies, ornamentation, grand contrasts in dynamics/timbres

Theatre/Film

- Focus Question 1: What are the major characteristics of Broadway music?
 - Telling a story, part of a musical, sing-able melody
- Focus Question 2: How does a song from a Broadway show or film further the plot?
 - Often times a song will either carry out the plot or depict an emotion or thought process of a character. A song can be portraying real time or be a frozen moment in time. It is important to know when and how the song fits into the plot so as to understand its importance or role in the story
- Focus Question 3: What types of singing techniques are needed for musical theater?
 - “belt,” volume, Forward placement, “brassier/nasal” sound
