

Lisa Congdon '93

Lisa Congdon was born and raised in San Francisco and attended Burkes, University High School and U.C. Berkeley (B.A. in Political Science and Masters in City Planning and Community Development). She has a 15-year-old son, Alex Bustos, a freshman at Bay High School and is very active with sports and friends. Lisa has worked in the real estate industry in a variety of capacities over the past twenty-five years. For the past fifteen years, she has been at the Prado Group, focusing on residential and mixed-use development along with historic renovation projects in the Bay Area. Before joining the Prado Group, Lisa was in the dispositions group at AMB Property Corporation (now Prologis) and the real estate acquisitions group at Lend Lease. She has held positions on the alumni board at Katherine Delmar Burkes School and junior board at the Holy Family Day Home and YMCA. Lisa currently serves as Treasurer on a family board in Yakima, Washington. She loved her experience at UHS, which provided her lifelong friends, a strong work ethic and self-reliance. Over the years, she has maintained her connection with the UHS community through her involvement with the Decorator Showcase and looks forward to getting further involved.
