

Karen Hall P '22, '24

Karen Hall was named Chief Legal Officer and General Counsel for The Permanente Medical Group and the Mid-Atlantic Permanente Medical Group in 2019. In this role, she oversees TPMG's and MAPMG's Office of the General Counsel and serves as a business and legal partner and trusted advisor to the Boards of Directors and executives. Hall establishes TPMG's and MAPMG's legal strategy in conjunction with the Boards of Directors and the executive leadership teams. Hall partners closely with and advises TPMG's and MAPMG's Government Affairs teams. Hall began her legal career practicing commercial litigation in the Attorney General's office of the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington, D.C. She represented the U.S. government in commercial litigation, including bankruptcy matters, bank director and officer liability suits, and commercial contract disputes. She subsequently worked for Catholic Healthcare West and as an attorney at McCutchen, Doyle, Brown, and Enersen. Karen is married to Steve Sherr, who owns a renewable energy company, Foundation Wind Power, and has two daughters, Caroline and Chloe. Their family has a six-month-old rescue puppy, Ruby, who has been a great joy during shelter in place.
