

Anne Pedrero. P '20, '22

Anne MacMillan Pedrero has served on the UHS Board since 2017 and previously chaired the Development Committee. She is a member of the Cargill, Inc. Board of Directors and serves on the board of Waycrosse, Inc. Previously, Anne was employed as a Principal at Cargill Ventures, Cargill's strategic venture capital arm. She worked in partner marketing for Electronics for Imaging and in Public Affairs for Cargill in Buenos Aires, Argentina. Anne was also a co-founder of Daylight Design, a print and online media company in San Francisco. An active community volunteer, she currently serves on the Smithsonian National Board and as the Vice-Chair for the Board of Governors of the Watson Institute for International and Public Affairs at Brown University. Previously, Anne has served as a Trustee and Board Chair of The Hamlin School, and a number of other non-profit organizations. Anne holds a Bachelors of Arts degree in International Relations from Brown University, a Master of Arts in International Affairs from American University's School of International Service, and an MBA from the Stanford University Graduate School of Business. She lives in San Francisco with her husband, Robert, and three children.