

Mary Read P '20, '21

Mary Read was raised in Orinda and attended St. Mary's College, earning a BA in art history. She began her career in retail and fashion, working for Ralph Lauren and later worked at Gap Inc. (Banana Republic) as a production manager for women's clothing. Mary has been actively involved at UHS (Campaign Committee), Katherine Delmar Burke School (Leadership Giving Committee for the Campaign for Girls; co-chair of Burke's Family Festival), and Town School (trustee, co-chair of Town's annual fundraiser). She also serves as a director for MCM Foundation, a family foundation focused on initiatives to support children and education. Mary and her husband, MacGregor, have two children: Brady and Charlotte. She and her family enjoy travel, time with extended family, being outdoors, and spending the summer months on Nantucket.
