Getting to know your Centaurus Team: Brianne Wieronski

Each week we will introduce a member of the Centaurus staff and teachers to our parent and student community. This week, we'd like to introduce Brianne Wieronski.

Brianne Wieronski is the newest addition to the Centaurus Language Arts staff. Besides looking like a young Goldie Hawn, Ms. W has many amazing attributes including, but not limited to, laughing at her own jokes, knowing way too much about Lord of the Rings, and being an unapolgoetical bad speller. In her earlier years, Ms. W spent time skiing Bridger Bowl and almost always attending classes at Montana State University. She received her teaching degree here in Denver and has enjoyed seven glorious years of shaping the youth of America. While continuing to build her own army of avid readers and writers, Ms. W can be found biking the trails around Boulder or immersed in a good book. This year at Centaurus she'll be teaching "only the very best 9th and 10th graders" according to her own perspective.
