

MISSION ENGAGEMENT EDITION

GRACE GUIDANCE

College and Career Newsletter

Did you know?

THE GOAL OF MISSION ENGAGEMENT :

IS TO ENGAGE STUDENTS BOTH ACADEMICALLY AND SPIRITUALLY AS THEY SEEK TO GLORIFY GOD THROUGH SERVICE TO HIM. THROUGH THESE EXPERIENCES, STUDENTS WILL DEVELOP SKILLS IN PLANNING, RESEARCH, COMMUNICATIONS, SERVICE AND LEADERSHIP. IT IS THE HOPE THAT THEIR WORK, COMBINED WITH THEIR PERSONAL EXPERIENCES IN MINISTRY, WILL SERVE TO ENLIGHTEN THEIR MINDS AND INFLAME THEIR HEARTS, THAT THEY MIGHT ULTIMATELY BE TRANSFORMED INTO BOTH LIFELONG LEARNERS AND SERVANTS OF CHRIST

What is Mission Engagement?

What Counts as "ME"?

A mission experience is any act of volunteer/non-paid service for others that involves ministering to and serving those outside your immediate family. Activities should not be part of an academic requirement or take place during the school day.

Grade-Level Expectations

Grade	Hour Requirement
9 th	15 hours
10 th	20 hours
11 th	20 hours
12 th	20 hours

To be completed from June 1- May 15

Is it a requirement?

*Progress listed on your report card

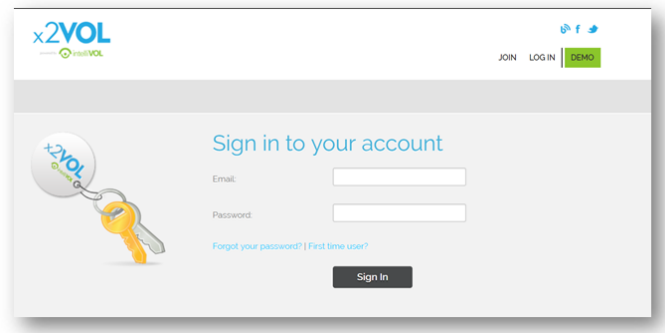

Students are encouraged to have experiences in all 4 categories:

- Education/Discipleship
Examples: coach, pre-school worker, camp worker, teacher
- People in Need
Examples: elderly home, soup kitchen, shelter, individuals with special needs
- Community
Examples: community centers, fire department, parks & rec, clean a stream, 5K for a cause
- Campus Based
A wide variety of activities and options will be made available throughout the year

FAQ's

- Q- It's tough to find service opportunities during the pandemic, am I still required to complete my hours?
- A- There are many ways to still serve virtually, on-campus, via many organizations & through encouragement.
- Q- What if I see an "I" or "F" on my report card for Mission Engagement?
- A- This is an automatic system setting for your report card (not transcript) to let you know mission engagement hours are incomplete.
- Q- What is the difference between a report card and a transcript?
- A- The report card is your quarterly progress report. The transcript is the official grades and credits that are sent to colleges and universities.
- Q- What if I have more questions about the Mission Engagement Program?
- A- Contact Allison Lay (Director of College & Career Advising). Stop by or email allison.lay@gcarams.org
