

What Can't you Post on Facebook?

Facebook doesn't allow it's users to post the following items:

- Nude Pictures or videos
- Post Spam
- Viruses or malicious code
- Content that is threatening, intimidating, or dangerous
- Content that is unlawful

What are good tips to follow to prevent bullying on social media?

1. Only friend/follow people that you know personally and trust
2. Don't give out your personal information
3. Don't say anything that will come back to bite you.

What are the penalties for the person who posts something in violation to Facebook policies?

Facebook will only takes off the post. You will keep your account and nothing else will be changed.

In order to remove anything on Facebook, you have to report a violation.

How to Report a Post:

To report a post you have to click the down bar, then select "I don't want to see this". Then, click "Why don't you want to see this?" and select the best option that explains why.

How to Report a Profile:

To report a profile you simply click the dot dot dot and report.

How to Report a Comment:

To report a comment click the X by the comment and then report the comment.

If you don't have an account, you can report something by filling out an online form located at: <https://www.facebook.com/help/contact/274459462613911>