(if snow date used for show: Monday, November 15, 2021)

Just a reminder: The daytime performance(s) and evening performance will be held on Thursday, November 4, 2021--or on the snow date. Students will be expected to remain in and/or around the auditorium while working on the show. IF there are two daytime performances, they will not be attending any classes that day. The evening show will begin at 6:00pm. Those working on the show will be required to be there by 5:15pm, in order to set up the lobby and prepare for the audience to arrive. There may be some students staying after school to set up, and then will stay through to the end of the show. If so, dinner will be provided. It is requested that all members will stay after the show to help take down the decorations and pack up the lobby area. Pick-up time will be no later than 10:00pm.

Please fill out the permission slip below and return to Mrs. Noonan ASAP. Be sure to keep the top portion for your records. Attendance at ALL meetings is a requirement for being in this group. Transportation home from all meetings, especially the late ones during the week of the show, is the responsibility of the student.

_____ has my permission to be involved in the Variety Show Marketing and Communications Group. I understand that attendance at all meetings is required, and will make sure that transportation is secured for each meeting date.
