- ❖ Sandra Cunningham-Asked if we teach CRT.
- ❖ Gary Sirese-Asked how many students got COVID last year.
- ❖ Carrie Martinez-Would like students and staff to wear masks and to listen to the experts.
- ❖ Bradford Secor- Stated there are many things that can go wrong when wearing a mask.
- ❖ Cassandra Johnson- Is against wearing masks, but would like tolerance taught with whichever choice is made.
- ❖ Randy Rainey-Would like everyone to be careful how they talk in front of their children.
- ❖ Rebecca Plum-Asked what is being done at ECC.
- ❖ Don Icenogle-Wished Lynn Kearney a happy retirement.
- ❖ Sarah Arminiak-Wanted to know how kids will be quarantined this year.
- ❖ Lisa Beck-Wants staff and students to wear masks so that everyone is safe in the classrooms.
- ❖ Kimberlee Swiecki-Wants masks to be optional and indicated that masks cause cancer.

- ❖ Shannon Clark-Wants parents to make the choice.
- ❖ Cindy Weeblehouse- Stated that she has vaccine injured grandchildren. Does not want masks to be worn.
- ❖ Lisa Warner-Said her grandchildren will be homeschooled and that masks are a smokescreen.
- ❖ Zoe Schultz-Has three nieces that attend WPS and that her daughter is suffering emotionally.
- ❖ Shannon Ciekko-Is against students wearing masks.
- ❖ Crystal Lockhorn-Said if ECC has to wear masks that her son will not be going to Wyandotte.
- ❖ Laura Kowalski-Has three WPS students, is a nurse and said that kids aren't the ones that have a problem with the masks.
