Specifically, the School has a legitimate interest in:

In addition, your personal information may be processed for the legitimate interests of others, for example, another school will have a legitimate interest in knowing if you have not paid School fees that are due to us.

3.2 Necessary for contract

We will need to use your information in order to perform our obligations under our contract with you and for you to perform your obligations as well, for example, we need your name and contact details so that we can update you on your child's progress and so that we can contact you if there is a concern.

In limited circumstances we may use your information to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of someone else, for example, if you or they are seriously hurt.

3.5 Performance of a task carried out in the public interest (or carrying out public tasks)

The following are examples of when we use your information to perform tasks in the public interest:

- providing your child with an education
- safeguarding and promoting your welfare, your child's welfare and the welfare of other children
- facilitating the efficient operation of the School and
- ensuring that we comply with all of our legal obligations.

3.6 Special categories of personal information

The School must also comply with an additional condition where it processes special categories of personal information. These special categories are as follows: personal information revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic information, biometric information, health information, and information about sex life or orientation.

3.6.1 Substantial public interest

The School is also allowed to use special categories of personal information where doing so is necessary in the substantial public interest. This is similar to "public interest" in section 3.5 above.

3.6.2 Social protection and social security laws

Also, the School may use your information to comply with social protection law, for example, to look after your child, and social security laws. Social protection law is concerned with preventing, managing, and overcoming situations that adversely affect people's wellbeing.

4 How and why does the School use personal information?

We set out below examples of the different ways in which we use personal information and where this personal information comes from:

- we may use information about you if we need this for historical research purposes or for statistical purposes, for example, if we consider the information might be useful if someone wanted to write a book about the School
- we may use your information when ensuring network and information security, for example, our anti-virus software might scan files containing information about you
- we can keep information about you for a very long time or even indefinitely if we need this for historical, research or statistical purposes, for example, if we consider the information might be useful if someone wanted to write a book about the School

 - we will hold information about bankruptcy petitions and statutory demands, where relevant
 - we may search the files of any licensed credit reference agency in order to verify your identity. This also allows us to assess your application for the award of a bursary or for credit in contemplation of an agreement for the deferment of fees. The credit reference agency will keep a record of that search and details about your application. This record will be seen by other organisations which make searches about you
 - we may share your information with debt recovery suppliers if you do not pay any School fees owed to the School.

Failure to supply information may result in a refusal of an award or credit.

5 Sharing personal information with third parties

- In accordance with our legal obligations, we will share information with local authorities, the Independent Schools Inspectorate and the Department for Education, for example, where we have any safeguarding concerns or to comply with our legal obligations.
- On occasion, we may need to share your information with the police for the prevention and investigation of crime and the prosecution of offenders. We will only do this in specific circumstances to assist the police with their investigations.
- We may need to share information about you with the Health and Safety Executive (a government organisation) if there is a health and safety issue at the School.
- In certain circumstances, we may also need to share information with our legal advisers for the purpose of obtaining legal advice.
- Occasionally we may use consultants, experts and other advisors to assist the School in fulfilling its obligations and to help run the School properly, for example, our accountants. We will share your information with them if this is relevant to their work.
- If your child is not of British nationality, we have to make sure that your child has the right to study in the UK. Sometimes the government will ask us to provide information as part of our reporting requirements. In addition to this we have a duty to provide information about you to UK Visas and Immigration to comply with our duties as a Tier 4 sponsor.

- The School is a charity which means that in exceptional circumstances we may need to share your information with the Charity Commission, for example, in the event of a serious incident.
- We may share information about you with our insurance company, for example, where there is a serious incident at the School.
- If you have unpaid fees, we may share information about this with other schools or educational establishments to which you intend to send your child.
- If your child leaves us to attend another school, we may provide that school with information about you, for example, details of family circumstances if there have been any safeguarding incidents.
- We may share information about you with others in your family, such as another parent or step-parent, for example, where this is part of our obligation to take care of your child, as part of our wider legal and regulatory obligations, or in connection with School fees.
- We may need to share information if there is an emergency, for example, if you are hurt whilst on School premises.
- If you have appointed an agent to act on your behalf, we may share information with them, for example, we may send letters to them so that they can pass these on to you.
- We may send you information about the School before you accept a place for your child, for example, we may send you a copy of the School prospectus.
- If your child has an Education and Health Care Plan (EHCP), we will share information with and obtain information from the local authority about you.
- We may share personal data with trusted third parties who process data on behalf of the School and / or provide services to the School that may involve the processing of personal data. These third parties are not permitted to process the data other than in accordance with our Data Processing Agreement with them, or to share your data with anyone else other than where necessary for the provision of the service to the School or as required by law.
- We sometimes use contractors to handle personal information on our behalf. The following are examples:
 - IT consultants who might access information about you when checking the security of our IT network and
 - we use third party "cloud computing" services to store some information rather than the information being stored on hard drives located on the School site.
- We obtain information about you from admissions forms and from your child's previous school. We may also get information from professionals such as doctors and from local authorities.

6 Criminal office information

We may only use information relating to criminal convictions and offences where the law allows us to do so. This will usually be where such processing is necessary to carry out our obligations or to exercise our rights.

Less commonly, we may use information relating to criminal convictions and offences where it is necessary in relation to legal claims, where it is necessary to protect our pupils and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

7 Multiple legal basis

As you will see from this Notice, in some cases we will rely on more than one basis above for a particular use of your information. In addition, we may move from one of the legal basis listed above to another as circumstances change, for example, as a safeguarding matter becomes more serious, we may start to rely on legal obligation to share personal information with the local authority in addition to the other legal basis which are noted for safeguarding purposes.

8 Consent

We may ask for your consent to use your information in certain ways as an alternative to relying on any of the basis in the table above, for example, we may ask for your consent before taking or using some photographs and videos if the photograph or video is more intrusive and we cannot rely on legitimate interests. If we ask for your consent to use your personal information you can take back this consent at any time. Any use of your information before you withdraw your consent remains valid. Please speak to the Chief Operating Officer if you would like to withdraw any consent given.

9 Sending information to other countries

In certain circumstances, we may send your information to countries which do not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is in the UK, for example, we may store your information on cloud computer storage based overseas.

The European Commission has produced a list of countries which have adequate data protection rules. The list can be found here:

https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection/data-transfers-outside-eu/adequacy-protection-personal-data-non-eu-countries_en.

If the country that we are sending your information to is not on the list or is not a country within the EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland), then it might not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is in the UK.

We will provide you with details about the safeguards which we have in place outside of this Notice. If you have any questions about the safeguards that are in place, please contact the Chief Operating Officer.

10 For how long do we keep your information?

We keep your information for as long as we need to in order to educate and look after your child. We will keep some information after your child has left the School, for example, so that we can find out what happened if you make a complaint.

In exceptional circumstances we may keep your information for a longer time than usual, but we would only do so if we had a good reason and only if we are allowed to do so under data protection law.

Please see the School's guidance on Information and Records Retention for more detailed information.

11 What decisions can you make about your information?

From 25 May 2018 data protection legislation gives you a number of rights regarding your information. Some of these are new rights whilst others build on your existing rights. Your rights are as follows:

11.1 Rectification

If information the School holds about you is incorrect you can ask us to correct it.

11.2 Access

You can also ask what information we hold about you and be provided with a copy. This is commonly known as making a subject access request. We will also give you extra information, such as why we use this information about you, where it came from and what types of people, we have sent it to.

11.3 Deletion

You can ask us to delete the information that we hold about you in certain circumstances, for example, where we no longer need the information.

11.4 Portability

You can request the transfer of your information to you or to a third party in a format that can be read by computer. This applies when:

- the information has been provided by you
- the basis that we are relying on to process your information is consent or contract (please see "Our legal basis for using your information" above) and
- the information is being processed by us on computer.

11.5 Restriction

Our use of information about you may be restricted in some cases, for example, if you tell us that the information is inaccurate, we can only use it for limited purposes while we check its accuracy.

11.6 Object

You may object to us using your information where:

- we are using it for direct marketing purposes
- the legal basis on which we are relying is either legitimate interests or performance of a task carried out in the public interest. Please see the section "Our legal basis for using your information" above and
- we are using it for historical or scientific research purposes or archiving purposes, for example, we may keep photographs of you at a School event for historical reasons.

12 Further information

The Chief Operating Officer is the person responsible at our School for managing how we look after personal information and deciding how it is shared.

Like other organisations we need to keep your information safe, up to date, only use it for what we said we would, destroy it when we no longer need it and most importantly - treat the information we get fairly.

This Notice is to explain how we use your personal information. The Chief Operating Officer can answer any questions which you may have.

This Notice does not, and is not intended to, give you any rights which you did not already have, for example, it does not give you any additional contractual rights.

Please speak to the Chief Operating Officer if:

- you require more information about your data protection rights
- you object to us using your information for marketing purposes, for example, to send you information about School events. We will stop using your information for marketing purposes if you tell us not to
- you would like us to update the information we hold about you or
- you would prefer that certain information is kept confidential.

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to perform our obligations under the contract we have entered into with you. We may also be prevented from complying with our legal obligations (such as to ensure the welfare of your child and their classmates).

If you consider that we have not acted properly when using your personal information, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office – www.ico.org.uk.
