National Fun Holiday/Days

September 20th

Pepperoni Pizza Day

Brian Ware was out to dinner with his family, watching his young children color with the crayons provided by the Restaurant. When Brian discovered that all of those slightly-used restaurant crayons ended up in the trash, he got an idea. Brian's Crayon Initiative collected those leftover crayons, melted them down, and repurposed them for special needs children to grip. Brian saw a need and did something about it. The Crayon Initiative shows initiative!
